Dear Sir

I wrote to you some time ago, respecting a little girl inherited by me from my late fathers estate, whom I am desirous of having sent out in the next expedition vessel from Baltimore.

As there is a possibility that the letter written at that time may not reach you, I write this to beg, that you will inform my brother at what time to take the child to Baltimore. Address Mr. S. Payne, Port Conway, King George Co. Va., who will pay the passage money.

As the girl is small, I think not above 8—10 years of age, I shall feel obliged to you to place her under the care
