To Dr Jas. Hall

Dear Sir

Having just returned from the Creeks & Islands on the Bay shore of this County, I embrace the first opportunity of giving an account of myself — after leaving us this place on tuesday week, I visited the different persons whose names were subscribed to the paper — And I must say that in the general they were very kind, & responded to the call several more promised to pay before I left the County — several are dead — one Administrator hand me $10 — for Mr Page Dec — so that I obtained 65 dollars before I left 20 or 30 more shall get — from Cambridge I started down the neck distract calling upon Mr Wm S Goldsborough on my way who paid 25 dollars as pleasantly as a Gentleman could do but I was not so fortunate in the neck, it seems that Mr Kennard had deputed a Mr Wm Frazier to collect the money for him — which he did all that he could to the amount of 55 dollars — this money he paid him in Annapolis — he said he believed it was the year 1840 if so it must have been while he acted as home agent the following are the names

Wm Frazier 5 00	Saml Corner 5 00	G Griffith 5 00
John R Creighton 5 00	V Mitchel 5 00	R Richards 5 00
Chas. B Frazier 5 00	Jacob Leompkin	Jos Hadaway 5 00
		M Mitchell 5
