Dr Hall

Dear Sir

Captain John E. Taylor is in Brig Delaware from Gambia peanuts & Orang Outang &c &c — He goes out again in three weeks. Any letters for Africa sent to our office may go by him to Liberia —

I have written to Mr Lewis to know whether he can send any freight or Emigrants. Taylor will go to Monrovia or further if we can offer an adequate remunerant in freight —

Can you send any by him?

Kind regards to Mrs Hall & your son — I have returned in fine spirits from a long and pleasant tour South —

Heald has done the fair thing by the Tobacco — from 2 to 4½ —

I leave next Friday for a tour to Boston & Eastward generally —

When will the next packet start

Purchase. don't build.

Yours in haste
