Dr James Hall

Dear Sir

Your favour came safe to hand yesterday morning and immediately on its receipt I went to see Captain Taylor but without success, I however left word for him to call up at the Office and see me, but he has not yet either made his appearance or sent any message, Your best plan then will be to correspond with him direct. his address is Capt. John E. Taylor, Care of Wm Cummings Esq- South Wharves Philadelphia. Being about to leave the city to day to go to Boston &c, I must here conclude and subscribe my self

Yours Truly

Per Wm Coppinger
Clerk P.C.S.

N. B. It is probable that Mr McLain will not send any thing by Capt Taylor and that Taylor will not take any thing
