I am still waiting to see the Salvation of the Lord
Mr Seys, as I am informed, is Stationed in the N.Y. Conference.
I wish you would please inform me, whether you expect to send a vessel to Liberia next fall; for I wish to go in, or send by you. I shall be extremely gratified, to become a Subscriber to your interesting Colonization Journal.
I am Sir, most unworthily yours, truly. Geo. J. Brown.

My Dear Sir

I cannot imagine why your article has not appeared in the of Commerce. Dr. C. left the city just after handing it to them & before they decided whether they would publish it. Since that I wrote an article for the Sun which raged upon the British for their treatment of our Colony, but they have not published it — I imagine that they are afraid to take the ground we wish them to. What can we do further? Will not some of your Balt. papers give the thing a start? —

Tomorrow I shall send you a Repository & want you to refuse to pay more than newspaper postage, & allege that according to the 16th Sec. of the new law it is a newspaper: it has the four things which constitute a newspaper: viz. 1. it is issued in numbers: 2. it consists of not more than two sheets; & they of much smaller size than 1,900 superficial inches: 3. it is published at short stated intervals of not more than one month; & 4 it contains intelligence of passing events: & therefore I claim that
