My Dear Sir

Your favor of "the first fruits of reduced postage" is at hand. So it seems I failed to find the "Slaver Atalanta" in the "J. of Commerce", & thus undoubtedly have some resemblance to the man of war who failed to catch her as she left the Coast.— Please say in what date of the paper it appeared? I am now making up my Repos. & will put it in with some "remarks" antecedent or subsequent. I think that the author of it ought by all means to follow it up with another "of the same sort" if he "has a few left."—

I send you herewith our last Repository — in which you will find the letters of Benson & Roberts which you want, & if you prefer a manuscript copy, I presume you can obtain one cheap. I hope your Board will take the subject up in earnest & send a strong letter to Polk & his Cabinet. I have laid the letters & a statement of the facts before them, and have asked & urged that it is com-
