Nav. Govt Oct. 15, 1845

Rt. James Cole

Dear Sir,

I received your letter and would have answered it some days ago. Mr. McLean's letter had been before our Board, was referred to a Committee, and only yesterday that Committee came to a definite conclusion in the premises. We have accepted his proposals, will send out our Missionaries in the Roanoke Capt. Hannah to sail from Norfolk on Nov. 1, and just as our freight at Baltimore. I have just written to Mr. McLean to this effect.

We are nevertheless obliged to you for your attention in the recommendation of our Missionaries with happy & I hope you to address me.

Yours very truly
