Dr Rose

Dear Sir

Herewith is consigned to your care Daniel Sheldon & his Wife, Joseph Lowry, Alfred & their children in all seven persons with their goods & chattels consisting of seven boxes, 1 Chest, three small chairs as per bill which I have bound for Monrovia in the Roanoke to sail in a few days from your place. The expenses as far as Philadelphia are all paid. This family speaks nobly for the Colony. I am much pleased with their appearance & their character as given by the inhabitants is of the most satisfactory kind. This family arrived this morning & I forward them this way in preference to visiting any other. I will write Mr McLain when I send.

Very Respectfully
Your friend & obt
