Dear Sir.

Fishers Rooms
New York Oct 24. 1845

Yours of 25c is published. I accept my thanks.

I shall advise Mr Hepburn today of the opportunity now presented, of which he will without doubt avail himself. It will require no little exertion for him to make his preparations by the 15 Nov. but he hopes to have everything arranged by that time.

It is not probable that Mrs Thomson will go out with the repel. Mr Hepburn would have personally no objection, but after weighing the matter well, it appears to me to be hardly expedient. You can therefore consider this as settled.

I shall have but little freight to forward, the whole of our semi-annual supplies having been shipped by the repel packet ship in June & August. Three small boxes of clothing &c
