will be shipped to you address from this port which please put on board of your vessel for Cape Palmas. Add all charges to the amount of Mr Hedges's passage, for which he will have authority to draw on our treasurer prior to his departure. I wish to have every thing provided in the way of stores &c to make Mr Hedges as comfortable as possible on his passage.

I will get Mr H. to let you know immediately whether he will have anything to take with him beyond his personal baggage.

I am very respy yours
Elias B. Irving
Sec. Pro. Com.

I also enclose Bill of Lading of Four packages which you will please forward by your vessel as already advised. Be so good as to pay the freight of these to Baltimore which add to the Bill as before mentioned.
