I enclose some letters for Africa. If no vessel goes early to Charleston can the trunk be sent by some Gentleman going to Wilmington N.C. where I expect to be on the 12th inst.

Dr James Hall

Dear Sir

On my way here I left a large Trunk (Red leather) marked with my initials L.B.P. in the office of the Richmond transportation Co. at the Ship where the Norfolk Boats lie near the R.R. Depot, in charge of a Gentleman of the name of J. Brandt Jr to whom I was to write if I wanted them sent to Richmond.

I was induced to go over into the Valley of Va & have delayed so long that I must hasten to Charleston S.C. & therefore write to request you to take the trouble to ship it to Charleston by the first Vessel that offers & consign it to the care of James Adger Merchant & write to me both to Wilmington N.C & to Charleston S.C. My efforts within a few weeks past will realize in cash about a thousand dollars & I hope much more on Subscription —

I find much apathy, but an aptitude to be interested & enlisted wherever I go. Ought I to think of attending the next Annual Meeting? Tell me all your news & believe me as ever Yours. L.B. Pinney
