Dear Sir.

I have had the pleasure of receiving your letter of the 16th and am satisfied that the delay in the shipment of the goods per Brig Kent has been owing to no fault of yours. The articles of Mr Mesenger are so bulky that I must let them lie where they are at present. But the #4 small trucks provided to go from this office I must by the "Sarah E Merrill" I must beg you to return to me by first vessel: as I hope to have some opportunity from this port soon. The advertisement in the christian advocate which you kindly sent to me, refers I find to a vessel not yet arrived here.

I am very respy yours
