James Hall.

Dear Sir.

Your letter of the 23 arrived on the 26 inst. and I should have replied to it immediately, but having some money still remaining in the Treasury of the Foreign Mission, ~~and~~ I thought that I would apply for it. and then I should be able to tell you whether I had any means to bear my expences to Baltimore. I think what I have is sufficient if I am not detained to long here, I have some preparations to make for my Children, and do not think that I can possibly get away from here, under a week or ten days. but shall endeavor to get away as soon as I possibly can. I shall probably stop a day or two in New York, and then proceed. You did not tell me where to stop, so I conclude that I shall have no difficulty in finding a suitable place.

some have suggested that it is a slave state. and that I must look out. but I have not much fear about that. I have no kind friends here to prevent me from coming. My brother lives Wheelness day.

I am very truly Yours
E M R Thomson
