seen the Fowr people. I commenced this letter last Evening p. day Expecting to send by William Brown Colr, by the Morning Cars, but he has put off starting until Five P.M. to day which to inform you that, Charles Scolland was attacked about Midnight with a very Severe Chill which Continued long even to day light fever Blankets could not warm, I found him early in high fever, sent for my physician Doctr Waters, Doctr Albert Ritchie being absent, the doctr gave him a Calomel pill, and in a few hours directed Oil for, as he is with me, Every attention will be paid and I hope he will soon be relieved, I have had his horse taken care of. He Exposed him during the very damp bad weather and has taken colds. I will inform you next week how he progresses with my best Respect
I am Yrs
Danl Hughes

Mr Scolland was very particular That I should write to you and inform you of his arrival here he sends his respects.
