suffer as being a dishonest man, you a — thief. You will also inform me Sir if you think I would be doing wrong or running any risk by my coming to Baltimore. —

I have business which I should like to settle with you, and which I could more effectually do by seeing personally, when I can more fully inform you of all things relative to my detect from you.

I am Sir Your Humble Servant
William T. Catto

Dr James Hall.

Be pleas Sir to write me answer to this as soon as you can possibly do, as the report is gaining strength every day. — I have only been informd this day of it and though Sunday I have written you. which you will pardon
