than the government of Great Britain or the United States is at this moment. Its most questionable proceeding, indeed, was the violent breaking up of a slave factory on the coast, about the year 1829. As to charges on individuals (some of them of the grossest character) it is enough to say that they involve a question of ~~p~~ veracity between the parties, which will probably be determined (if it has not been already) before a different tribunal".

Thanking you again for your very kind + prompt reply to my inquiries,

I remain, Your obed. Servant,
