all of them. Much acrimony was evinced against the Board in Smiths case, by Dalrymple, but I didn't care for that. I came down to do my whole duty, and I did it as far as it was controllable by human power for the present. I will not let it rest where it is, if the Board will make the case de novo.

Pr please do me the kindness to ask Mr Campbell, (to whom I pray you convey my very warm wishes and respects) if I have not taken the correct legal view of the case?.

Thus ends my report, in this stage of it. I have now to inform you, of a matter turned up just to my hand. Geo. Dowell of Pr Fred.k put into my hands a list of subscribers to the Liberia Packet, procured by Mr Remard in Smithville 5 or 6 years ago!. It amounts to $332 50/100 = $15 of which were paid to him at the time, the balance remaining unaccounted for. In running my eye over the names, I found though some had died, enough there to pay nearly if not the whole of it. I happened to meet Mr Stevens of Smithville coming into the Levy Court, & I nabbed him for his $5, and got it. I solicited Judge Kents of the Orphans Court for his $20, he hadn't it about him he said, but would pay me when I came to Smithville to lecture. He promised to get his brothers $20 also, &
