at your convenience to inform me whether both Box & Letter were received in time for the Packet which I see is to sail to day —

— I now enclose one Dollar & fifty cents — the former being my subscription to the Journal for 1849 & the latter I hope will meet my little debt for Postage on the ill fated Box of last winter — you did not state the amount & I have to rely on the charge I always pay to Capt. Hickey — I beg you to tell me if so he got the amount

The Journal I have received — since April — I went to the P. O. — the other day & the P. M. — protested he always sends them when the papers come but assuredly I do not get them — moreover I cheerfully throw my Dollar into the Colony's fund —

— I trust your accounts from the Colony are cheering — in great haste (Capt. Hickey leaving just called) very respectfully

Sir — Your Obt. Servant —

A. Foreman —

Hope — August 1st 1849.
