VOL. 67. CHESTERTOWN, MD., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1905. NO. 20

DOWN WE COME

Our half yearly reduction sale of Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing begins today.

In it we offer you a fairly good selection of thoroughly dependable merchandise—Suits that are made to fit, and put together, not for this special sale, but are goods left from our season's selling, made up in the most approved manner—best trimmings and best workmanship.

You will find them all marked in plain figures, and every penny reduction you receive from the original price, is that much taken from an honest and legitimate profit. No marking up and then marking down prices, but what's the use using all this ink to tell you that the word CLEARANCE SALE with our name beneath it ought to be sufficient, for they have been too well established in the past years for there to be any doubt as to the genuineness of our offers.

In this sale we have Men's Suits low as $2.50 the whole suit. Boys' Suits at prices calculated to interest any mother who has a boy to don them. Straw hats are also included in this sale. We're going to let 'em go.

Yours for business,

J. D. LUCAS.

ATTACKED BY A MAD COW!

Mr. David Clements, aged 84, made a narrow escape from being gored to death by an angry cow last Saturday morning at the home of his son, Mr. Alday Clements, near Chesterville. Mr. Clements left the house and started to walk about the cattle in the pasture field. He was gone longer than usual and search was made for him. A cow was seen in the field pawing at something upon the ground, and upon investigating it was found to be Mr. Clements. Two men were soon to the rescue and the cow was killed. Dr. Gowman was called in to see Mr. Clements. We are glad to report that his injuries were not serious and that he is able to be out again. He is certainly an active man for his age. He states that if he could have gotten his penknife he would have killed the enraged animal!

CAUTION.

Old Relics.—In making repairs to the Bacchus brick house on High street this week Mr. Wm. Coleman found three school books between the floor and plaster of the second story. One of the books bore the name of Miss Emeline Dugan, 1821, and the other Louise Gale, March 14, 1811. The books were well preserved. We learn that the upper room of this building was at one time used as a school room where Mr. Arthur taught. It is evident these scholars were tired of their grammar and spelling and took this method of getting rid of them.

New Summer Resort.—It is rumored that capitalists from Philadelphia have bought Grove Point, for $35,000, with the idea of making it a summer resort. They have been over the line of the much talked of Middletown and Cecilton trolley road, and conferred with those interested in the venture there wishing to make connection with Philadelphia by trolley from Grove Point to Middletown and by boat to Baltimore.

JUDGE MARTIN TAKEN SICK.

Judge Martin was taken sick while on the bench in Chestertown Wednesday afternoon. He and Judge Brown were closing a day of strenuous work when Judge Martin complained of feeling badly. He left the bench and retired to his room at the Voshell House, where Drs. Dodd and Hines ministered to his needs. Messrs. C. L. Dodd and John Hartnett remained with him during the night and Mrs. Lambert nursed him during the day. It seems that Judge Martin was suffering from a slight stroke of paralysis, which affected his left arm and limb.

Mrs. Martin, who was in Baltimore, arrived Thursday and accompanied her husband to Baltimore yesterday morning by boat. Dr. Hines also went over with the Judge. He was able to walk yesterday, and it is sincerely hoped that his affliction will be only temporary.

Judges Pearce and Brown are on the bench.
