Dr. James Hall

My Dear Sir –

I regretted much that I did not see you before your departure for Washington. Personal indisposition prevented me from doing so. I was taken sick on Saturday night, and for three days confined to my house, and part of that time to my bed. Today, I have been out, and though feeble, yet attended to my business.

Upon calling at the Office and paying over $86.00 to Mr. Finlay to be deposited in Bank, I found our little Monthly had made its appearance, but to my great surprise, not a word of your Travelling Agent's Report was in it. Mr. Finlay himself had not, until I spoke of it, discovered the absence of that never-failing accompaniment to your Journal. I called at Mr. Toy's but the Ms. had not been sent in. Perhaps you will remember that I always hand you my Reports on the last day of every month. To on the 31st inst.
