CHESTERTOWN, - - MARYLAN

LIVE LOCAL NOTES

Thieving.—Three chickens were stolen from in front of Mr. J. S. Bradley's store Saturday night.

Mrs. Wm. G'eaves' 35 pound gobbler and a hen were stolen during the holidays.

Held for Court.—Clifton Spry, of Chesterville, has been arrested by Sheriff Medders on the charge of selling intoxicating drinks and held in $750 bail for his appearance at Court. Mr. Spry was arrested in Delaware and refused to come to Kent until extradition papers were secured. It gave Sheriff Medders considerable trouble but he was determined to have his man.

Cholera.—Hog cholera is still playing havoc with hogs in Kent. County Commissioner Loud has lost 14 during the past ten days as has also Mr. George S. Biddle. Mr. Biddle says he has not had the cholera in his hogs since 1886 when he lost $900 worth of pork.

Mr. Victor Hendrickson says in his opinion there is no reliance to be placed in any of the so-called remedies for hog cholera. That which cures in one case utterly failes in another. The only thing to do is to treat the hogs right, especially in this cold weather, and then take the chances.

Accidents.—Master Irvin Sparks, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sparks, was accidentally shot in the leg with a cat rifle Monday evening by Master Charles Smith. Dr. Hines treated the wound which is not considered serious.

Mr. Thos. Culley, of Locust Grove, was severely injured Tuesday by the explosion of a large cannon cracker in his hand. Two fingers and a thumb were blown partly off.

Master Harry Steele was injured in the hand and head by a fire cracker Tuesday in Chestertown.

Judge Samuel Hicks has been suffering considerable pain as a result of two falls on slippery streets.

Turkeys High.—Dressed turkeys sold for 25 cents per pound in Chestertown Monday. Messrs. Asher & Ireland paid Mr. Adam Startt $115 for 34 turkeys. Mr. Thomas Blackiston was paid $145 for 53. Among his lot was a fine gobbler which he offered to sell Mr. Ascher for $4 without weighing him. Marcus said no and weighed him! He came to $4 16 and Marcus says that was one time he got beat at his own game. Mrs. Edgar H. Strong raised over 140 turkeys this year. Who can beat this?

Flooded.—A well-known citizen of Chestertown had occasion to get some water at midnight one night recently and going to his spigot was surprised to find no water. It seems that the Water Co. were making some repairs and had to shut off all water. The citizen forgot to close his spigot and went to bed. The result was that the next morning his cellar was flooded and water covered his kitchen! This was the far fetched case referred to by the "Skidoo" writer when he tried to find some complaint against the Water Co.

Announcements.—Cards have been issued announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Nora Adella, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Cosden, to Mr. Roger Jester. The ceremony will take place on Wednesday evening, January 2, 1907, at 6.30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, near Centreville.

Mrs. Mary A. Sparks has issued invitations announcing the marriage of her daughter, Mary Bertha, to Mr. Elwood T. Walls, on January 2, 1907, at 1 o'clock in the M. E. Church at Ingleside.

County Wages.—The following wages are paid for work on public roads in Cecil county:

| | |
|---|---|
| Laborers | $1.25 per day |
| Horse Cart with driver | 2.25 " " |
| Two Horses and Plow with driver | 3.00 " " |
| Two Horses and Wagon with driver | 3.00 " " |
| Four Horses and driver with wagon and scraper | 4.50 " " |
| Six Horses and driver with wagon and scraper | 6.00 " " |

The Kent county scale is $1 per day for laborers and $2 for horse, cart and driver.

Small-Pox Case.—The small-pox case in Lower Kent is doing well. The county authorities have erected a guard house in which Messrs. Frank Lambert and Mort. Rollison are watchmen and employed Dr. Wickes Merritt to attend the case. He will take up his residence in the guard house and give the case his whole attention. The colored people in that section have been vaccinated by Dr. Smith and every precaution is being taken to confine the malady to this one house. The case is a mild one.

The family afflicted is that of Samuel Cann. They comprise an old man aged 90, son and daughter-in law. The latter two are sick.

Ice Delays Steamers.—The steamer B. S. Ford, Capt. William Taylor, arrived at her pier nearly two hours late, after a terrific battle with the ice in the Upper Chester on Wednesday. From Chestertown down to Deep Point ice from 2 to 2½ inches, clear and strong, was encountered. The Ford had considerable trouble in making her way into Queenstown Creek on Monday, and no effort was made to make her landings there Tuesday. Corsica River was frozen almost solidly, and ice was making rapidly in the lower stream.

The Tolchester Company has cut out its Havre de Grace and Port Deposit route, and Captain Eliason said that unless a decided change in the weather sets in before Monday next no steamer will be sent out for Georgetown and intermediate Sassafras River points. He further said that the steamer had an exceedingly difficult time in making the trip on Monday last and he would not venture another trip there until conditions became more favorable.

The steamer Ericsson, of the Baltimore and Philadelphia Steamboat Company's Philadelphia route by way of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal, encountered heavy ice in the canal and at the head of the bay on Tuesday. The trip was made behind two big ice breaking tugs with tows, which greatly lessened the difficulties.

The home of Mr. Fletcher Clark made a narrow escape from fire a few days ago. Mrs. Clark was about to leave home when she took another look into the kitchen and found a fire on the floor and a hole burned therein. It is thought a hot coal had been dropped.

Land Notes.—Mr. James T. Bright trustee for Mrs. Martha S. Smith, sold on Tuesday last the "Hooper Farm" containing 171 acres to Mr. Walker T. Wright for $5800.

Col. John F. Godwin has sold his "Parson Green" farm, situate near Church Hill to E. S. Valliant & Sons for $8500.

E. H. Beck, Real Estate broker, has sold to Herbert N. Price the farm belonging to Mrs. Jennie Jet, of Newark, located near Kirkwood, containing 188 acres for $5,500. Also the farm located in Pond's Neck belonging to Frank K. Hendrickson, of Delaware City, containing 200 acres to Joseph S. Benson, of Earleville, Md., for $4,000.

Mr. Frank L. Smith has sold to Mr. John C. Turner his dwelling in Millington for $2000.

Mr. Walter Sparks, through J. Waters Russell, real estate broker, has sold to Mr. Lewin U. Skirven his home in Fairlee, price $1500. Mrs. Lewis the present tenant will remove to the Lamb house and Mr. Skirven will occupy his newly bought property. Mr. Skirven had rented the Barnett house in Chestertown which he now advertises for rent.

The W. J. Morrison house on High and Lynchburg avenue has been sold to Mrs. R. R. Hatcherson who presented it to her sister, Mrs. T. B. Elliott as a Christmas gift. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott will remove there at once.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

William Pennington, formerly of Chesterville, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Janie Coppage, in Rock Hall, Monday night aged 75. The deceased leaves four children, viz., Mrs. Coppage, Harry Pennington, of Philadelphia, Washington, of Cecil, and Mrs. Clara Pennington, of Wilmington. Messrs. J. Thomas and Noble Pennington are his brothers. He was interred in Shrewsbury Cemetery.

Rev. Christopher Denroche.

Rev. Christopher T. Denroche, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd at Chesapeake City and a member of the Diocese of Easton, died in Harrison Memorial House of the Episcopal Hospital, Philadelphia, last Sunday evening. He had been in poor health for several months and went to the hospital about two weeks age. He was 72 years of age. He was formerly of Texas, but for the past 17 years was a member of this diocese. For about 15 years he was rector of St. Paul's and I. U. parishes, in this county. He had been located at Chesapeake City but a few months. At the time of his death he was dean of the Northern Convocation. One son and three daughters survive him.

Truly of him it can be said that "none knew him but to love him" and his death was received here with feelings of great sorrow by his scores of friends. The body was brought to Chestertown on Monday and rested in the parish house of Emmanuel Church until Wednesday when the burial took place at St. Paul's. The bearers were the vestrymen of St. Paul's and I. U. Churches, viz., Messrs. George Beck, Robert C. Morgan, George and James Bell, P. A. M. Brooks, Edward W. Hepbron, Charles Skirven, Harry Stavely, I. F. Walbert, Walter Francis.

Revs. Dr. Martin, Gray and Wilson Sutton officiated; J. E. Ferguson, undertaker.

Father McKenna, of Sacred Heart Church, Chestertown, was called home Saturday, by the sudden death of his mother in Wilmington. Father Ryan has been conducting the services here in the absence of Father McKenna.

Mrs. Arraminta Copper, relict of the late Joshua Copper, died at the home of her son, Mr. Jesse Copper, near Chestertown, on Wednesday night last, aged 86. The deceased had been a sufferer for a long while during all of which she had the loving care and attention of children. Her presence in the house was always sweet and beneficent and her whole life was one of kind acts and loving deeds. She was a good woman. There survive the following children: Mrs. Kate Crew, Mrs. Mollie Startt, Mrs. James E. Weer, Miss Ellen Copper, Samuel A. and W. Bradford. The funeral took place yesterday interment in Chester Cemetery, Rev. W. L. White officiating; J. E. Ferguson, undertaker.

LOCUST GROVE LOCALS.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Comly entertained Mr. Robert Comly and Miss Anna Knorr on Tuesday.

Mr. Frisby Newcomb has been quite ill at his home near here. We are glad to report him much improved at this writing.

Many removals have taken place around here lately.

Mrs. J. A. Stauffer and daughters spent Thursday with friends in Chesterville.

Miss Isabel Van Dyke has been visiting in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. James Matthews and children were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cooper on Tuesday.

Mr. Joseph Culley, Jr., met with a serious accident Monday afternoon while trying to fire off a fire cracker. He was hurried to a hospital in Baltimore accompanied by Mr. L. G. Chrisfield.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. W. Crew visited Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Van Dyke on Tuesday.

Why Refer to Doctors

Because we make medicines for them. We tell them all about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and they prescribe it for coughs, colds, bronchitis, consumption. They trust it. Then you can afford to trust it. Ask your own doctor.

The best kind of a testimonial—"Sold for over sixty years."

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass., also manufacturers of SARSAPARILLA, PILLS, HAIR VIGOR.

Ayer's

We have no secrets. We publish the formulas of all our medicines.

Ayer's Pills greatly aid the Cherry Pectoral in breaking up a cold.
