Cambridge Feb. 13. 1854.

Dear Br. Seyd,

Your letter has just come to hand, and in reply allow me to say your visit will be heartily welcomed by us here. & will be quite opportune, as Br. Easterfield and myself will be absent that day from Cambridge at a Missionary meeting to be held at Beckwith's so that you will have full scope for your operations. I shall have your appointment announced in the paper this week. And you will oblige us by preaching for our people at night after your Colonization meeting in the morning.

You will be I trust kind enough to excuse our presence with you on that day. on acct. of the engagement already mentioned

Yours affectionately
Vaughan E. Smith
