P.S. Thursday morning — Will you please if possible find out about what time the Harp will sail & let me know at Savannah — I have no I shall have to leave some of the plunder of the people there — and I want to know what I shall do with it. If it can reach Balt. in time for the Harp it can be taken in her — I must send it —

You will of course understand that you will consign all the things I send you from here — to Benson — & Dennis — & not to the persons individually for whom they are marked
