DAVIS—PIERCE.

One of the prettiest home weddings of the season was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George D. The bridal party entered the beautifully decorated parlor to the strains of Lohengrin's March played by Miss Edna Stevens, while "Hearts and Flowers" was rendered through the entire ceremony. Miss Stevens' dress was of white net with trimmings of Cluny lace.

The bride beautifully attired in a gown of Paris muslin with French val trimmings, carrying white carnations, was attended by Miss Frances Griffith, whose dress was of white silk chiffon with ribbon trimmings. The groom was attended by his brother, James D. Davis, of Wilmington. Both wore the conventional black, with white gloves. Rev. A. P. Prettyman performed the ceremony. The parlor was tastefully decorated in green, and the corner in which the ceremony was performed was banked with palms and potted plants, canopy of green under which the bridal party stood and received the congratulations of the many guests present. The house was beautifully decorated, the prevailing color being green.

The presents were numerous, handsome and useful, conveying to some extent at least, an idea of the popularity of the young people, and consisted of cut glass, silver, china, linen, art pieces and bric-a-brac.
