My Dear Sir

After so long a time, you see I am at home again! You several favors of the last several days. Some of them forwarded from Savannah, and some here, lie all before me.

To fill up the engagements of freight — I inclose a list of what is among with Smyth. from Savannah, amounting to about, 6 tons. I presume this includes all they have, excepting their beds: but I cannot tell positive. —

If you have any oil cask shooks or can get any, I want 50 to 75 sent to S. A. Benson, Bassa: if you have not or cannot get that many, send him all you can. But if you have none, I can get none — but in shingles — to fill up, after having purchased I put in the
