My Dear Sir

Yours of "no day & nowhere" & about nothing — is received. I told you when I saw you last that I had received a letter from Mr. Gurley asking this Ex. Com. to aid him in raising the 100,000 dollars — urging that they would get a meeting in New York to decide upon a definite plan, because he was greatly embarrassed in his efforts to raise money by the general indefiniteness of the present state of the Subject! I said that letter was another one from him of the same tenor to us on the Ex. Com. at this meeting the 16 ult. and they adopted "four resolutions" thereupon — of which I now inclose you a certified copy. — I think the resolutions are harmless enough. It was understood by the Com: that Mr. Hodge whom you want to see when he once comes to N York the next week & that he fully understood the things! — But this Com. has not yet heard of any meeting of your Com. being called — have not therefore commissioned Mr. Hodge to attend it! I have not heard from Mr. Gurley since I sent him a
