When the Children come home from School-

They usually want something from the pantry

You remember the hunger you had—Home cooking counts for much in the child's health; do not imperil it with alum food by the use of poor baking powder.

Have a delicious, pure, home-made muffin, cake or biscuit ready when they come in. To be sure of the purity, you must use

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Royal makes a difference in your home—a difference in your health—a difference in your cooking.

ROYAL is absolutely Pure.

PINEY NECK WAVES.

March brought with her rain, wind and snow. We hope the old maxim "Comes in like a lion goes out like a lamb," proves true.

Mr. Edgar Strong was summoned to Baltimore on Wednesday on account of the illness of his mother, Mrs. A. A. Strong. He found her dead on his arrival. The remains were brought over Saturday and interred in St. Paul's cemetery. Mrs. Strong had frequently visited her son and was in her eighty-fifth year.

Miss Mary H. Strong has returned to her home "Grey's Inn Point," after three weeks visit in Chestertown.

Misses Mary and Pauline Stauffer were entertained by friends in Kennedyville Sunday last.

Mrs. Ida Scotten and little daughter, of Kennedyville, visited friends near here last Saturday and Sunday.

ROCK HALL ITEMS

Sunday last was Missionary rally day with the Methodists of Rock Hall. Rev. J. M. S. Van Blunk preached morning and evening interesting sermons on missions, missionaries and other topics in Africa. He also answered various questions submitted at the Sunday School service in the afternoon. He held the closest attention of his hearers throughout the day. Amount realized for the day was about $30.00.

Revival meetings still continue. Rev. Mr. Burr has been assisted this week by Rev. Mr. Harris of Piney Neck Church. Number of converts thus far is 5 or 6.

Saturday cleared off so pretty and balmy permitting many oystermen to ply their vocation that every one thought the backbone of winter was not only broken, but that the blustery freezing chap had "skidood" for sure, but not so, he bobbed up again alright on Sunday night with more cold and ice. Well, the ground hog has only one more week in which to finish out his inning, then we can say goodbye old winter, barring the little old Pat may have in store.

Notwithstanding the near approach of Easter and the liklihood of more or less inclement weather, the Easter hat is in bloom, and she is in our midst, and she is a daisy too. Not so daisified as formally, perhaps, but she is much admired by the fair sex, and Mrs. Alexander's display is having a rush. The Easter display of all our milliners are large and fascinating.

The vigorous organization and protests of the Anne Arundel and Calvert county oystermen are very disturbing to the Sun—Haman, crowd. They, too, are organizing vigorously to protect their "craft." The protests of the Anne Arundel oystermen are timely, viz.: The working on natural bars for plants from April 15 to May 15, a time when hordes of don't care (except for the present) oystermen will rob their own interests, for the benefit of the planters, at such prices as the planters may please to pay. If that part of the Haman law was illiminated, oystermen generally would be glad to let the law have a thorough trial.

Mr. J. A. Casey, preparatory to a complete reopening of his bakery business, is having the interior of his store room renovated, painted, etc. He has secured a new baker, who will be installed next week, then Mr. Casey's large trade will be fully supplied with bread, cakes, pies, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. H. Ayres, who have been spending the winter with their son, Warren, in Washington, D. C., returned to their home here, on Tuesday of last week. They report a most pleasurable sojourn in the national capitol. In their sight seeing they took in nearly all places of interest in the city, and nearby towns, including the scene of the recent railroad wreck near Washington, where they beheld the sight of bits of human flesh, and brains, scattered over the road bed. With all their pleasure however, there was a sense of homesickness, and a desire to get back to old Rock Hall, and their mourners, relatives and friends are joyous to have them back.

Hynson Carter, one of our young men, has retired from fishing and oystering and proposes to go out and see some of the world outside. He has secured a birth with Capt. Frank Satterfield on his steam yacht.

Our roads are just horrible and will need much repair work this spring.

It is said that posts planted while the ground is wet will insure the most solid fence. Mr. M. L. Maslin intends to prove the truth of that assertion. He is now making extensive fence improvements.

Just as the storm swooped down on us on Tuesday night the dancing school adjourned and caught the storm in full, and becoming confused some got lost in the village. One of our school marms who weighs 99 pounds thought she surely would be blown from the earth. Luckily the fierceness of the wind and snow soon abated some, and all got home in good order.

NOTICE.

ALL TONGERS who are now oystering or have oystered during this season without license by the last of March will be dealt with according to law.

CAPT. J. C. ASHLEY,
Rock Hall, Md.

A BLACK SNAKE six feet long was seen last Friday morning by Mr. Lewin Burris crawling over Mr. Walter Francis' field in Quaker Neck! This snake must have made a mistake and come out too soon.
