ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Made from Pure Grape Cream of Tartar

The only excuse for buying anything but a Pure Grape Cream of Tartar Baking Powder is to save a few cents in price.

¶ROYAL costs you a few cents more per can than Alum or Phosphate of Lime powders, but it is worth far more than the difference to keep your biscuits, cakes and pastry free from the injurious effects of these cheapening substitutes.

Avoid Alum Ailments—Say plainly ROYAL BAKING POWDER

ROCK HALL ITEMS

My! What a scare we got on Sunday, many here were fearful that a repetition of the big blizzard of March 1888 would be in full force by Monday, but "He who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb," ordered otherwise. Very few persons ventured out from home, as a consequence church services were slimly attended. On Monday night many of our people viewed with interest the bright aurora borealis. The weather man again early Wednesday morning gave us another big surprise in handing down the heavy electrical storm and down pour of rain.

The M. E. Revival meetings, owing to a lack of sufficient interest on the part of the rank and file came to a short stop on Wednesday evening last week. When some of us "see ourselves as others see us" perhaps there will be better preparedness for seeking and saving the lost.

The oystermen in these parts read with interest in Monday's paper Gen. W. A. Jones' talk on oyster farming. It was noted that the gallant General looks upon oyster tongers as river pirates, so do about all the oyster planters. It was also noted that Gen. Jones says oyster planting is no business for the poor man, so said we all long years ago, and that is one of the reasons why we so long opposed any leasing scheme.

The colored sporting fraternity, at their headquarters at Gray's Inn on Saturday night had an unpleasant event. In a friendly bout with gloves between Frank Hawkins and George Beremon, the former's eye was knocked out. Dr. Beale was called to render surgical aid and he advised that Hawkins be sent to the city for treatment. He went Monday, at last report it seems doubtful if the man's eye can be saved.

It is not often that prosperity will cause complaining among its beneficiaries, but the prosperity of this section has produced an immence circulation of pennies and Postmaster Downey is overcrowded with them and is embarassed thereby. Distribute them John a la Rockefeller and enjoy life but don't increase the postage rates too.

Mr. Olin Ashley has accepted the position as head salesman in the department store of Alexander & Son where he will be pleased to have his many young friends and others call and inspect goods, prices, etc. when on a shopping tour.

Capt. C. R. Kerr with his steam yacht, Kaleda, left Gray's Inn wharf where he has wintered, for Baltimore on Wednesday past.

Capt. Frank Satterfield will not leave here with his yacht until about April 1st.

Deep water fishing is about done owing to the mild weather. Some of the crews have already stopped and are now preparing for the Spring fishing. More boats are being fitted out with gasoline power. Herring frogs are heard in the swampy places, that means we'll soon have a plenty of small bone bacon on our tables.

GALENA NOTES.

Our roads are in a very bad condition, nearly impassible, those who travel over them say they are worse than they have been for several years. We have come to the conclusion that the roads would be better if there was no work done on them for two or three years, for where the most work has been done the roads are worse than where no work was done.

The streets and side-walks in our town are nearly impassible.

We have had very little sickness in our town this winter. Miss Ella Parr arrived home on Saturday last. She was under treatment in a hospital in Baltimore for about six weeks. She came home very much improved. Her trouble was nervous exhaustion.

Them agistrates court was crowded on Tuesday evening last. A case of disorderly conduct being tried and about twenty witnesses examined. The case was dismissed for want of sufficient proof to convict.

The political pot has not commenced to boil here yet, so far it is a very slow simmer.

We are interested just now in the approaching primars in Baltimore City.

The Tolchester line is making regular trips now to Fredericktown.

The butcher shop was broken into last week and some fur stolen from there.

Mrs. Lydia George who has been very ill at her home near Locust Grove is convalescent.

Miss Lydia George is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Della Cox, of Locust Grove.

Mrs. Eva Comegys has returned home after a pleasant visit to her mother, Mrs. Amanda George, of Galena.

SASSAFRAS ITEMS.

There has been more sick horses in this vicinity and a number dying. J. D. Davis lost another fine young horse the past week and Mr. Lewis P. Atwell lost a very fine young horse this week. We do trust our farmers will not lose any more for they will be very much inconvenienced thereby.

Quarterly Conference was held in the Rehoboth M. P. Church on Thursday morning last.

Mrs. John R. H. Price was taken dangerously ill on Saturday week from ruptering a blood vessel, and for a time the doctors considered her case grave. We are pleased she is some little improved at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rosin visited relatives in Wilmington last week.

Mrs. Lewis H. Dreka has been visiting relatives for the past fort-night in Philadelphia.

Mr. W. H. Spry, of Galena, is lying quite sick with the quincey.

Mr. and Mr. James Thomly's little son has been very ill suffering with the croup.

Mrs. J. Harry Lowe, of Philadelphia, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Carolene Johns, and brothers, at their beautiful home near town.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Robinson entertained at a five o'clock wild goose dinner on Thursday last, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Robinson, of near Newark, Delaware; Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Robinson, near here, and Mr. Frank Wilson were among the guests. An elegant menu was served. The fine goose was shot by Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Robinson's son, Julian, who is a shot of no mean ability and is a scholar in the High School at Cecilton. The goose was feeding in his father's wheat field near town.

Mr. Frederick Vansant visited his family here on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Vansant will remove to Wilmington in about two weeks. It is so inconvenient for him, his family here and his field of duty in Wilmington.

The death of Captain J. Fletcher Wilson on Friday last was a great shock to his family and friends here. I have known Captain Wilson from my early boyhood and loved him as a dear brother and his death is most keenly felt by the writer of this. Captain Wilson was one of our most influential and best known citizens we had in upper Kent. He was an upright, honorable and exemplary gentleman, one whom always performed well his duty to God and his fellowman, in business his word was his bond and his long honored life, he leaves to his children as a Godly heritage. During the last six years he was a great sufferer from rheumatism, but always bright and cheerful. He leaves one of the most devoted wives who was Miss Catherine R. Woodall, daughter of the late Capt. Andrew Woodall, of Georgetown, and three devoted children—Mr. Alexander Wilson, Mr. Andrew Woodall Wilson and Mrs. J. R. Cochran, of East Orange, N. J. We will miss him but it will be in his home where he will be missed and mourned the most. He is also survived by three sisters and one brother, Mr. William Wilson and Mrs. Alexander McInlee, of Elk Neck; Mrs. Daniel Cochran and Mrs. J. Frank Pennington, of Middletown, Del. His lovely family have the sympathy of the community and our Heavenly Father alone can give them comfort in this dark hour, to them the saddest hour they ever knew. and Mrs. Wilson has been doubly afflicted, she has lost her dear father and devoted husband in less than one year, as her father died in May last. The funeral services took place from his late home, Georgetown, on Monday at 1 p. m. Rev. Mr. Smoot of Galena and Rev. Mr. Dawson, of Cecilton, conducted the services. Interment at Westminister Presbyterian Cemetery, near Georgetown. Over 150 people were in attendance from Baltimore, Elkton, Elkneck, Philadelphia, New York, Middletown, Cecilton, Galena and elsewhere.

A Farmer's Necessity.—Fertilizer is a necessity in growing good crops for this section. Kent County is to be congratulated upon having such high class fertilizer and dealers as are represented in our midst. The Wilbur W. Hubbard firm is known all over the Maryland---Delaware peninsula as a reliable firm and the fact that this firm is constantly increasing its sales every successive year is proof that their goods are as represented. This is their 64th season.

Armour's fertilizers are sold in this community by Mr. Hiram M. Brown and both the seller and goods he represents have gained a flattering reputation in this section for straight, high class, true-to-name dealings. Our farmers will not go estray in dealings with these firms.

PINEY NECK WAVES.

The heaviest and deepest snows of this winter visited us on Sundays. Not many ventured out on Sunday only in cases of great necessity.

Miss Naomi Harp, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Hortense Harp, in Baltimore, is receiving medical treatment. Miss Harp has had a growth removed from her nose and hope the operation will be a successful one.

Mr. Maurice Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Edwards, celebrated his twenty-second birthday in the Knights of Pythias Hall on Tuesday evening. Everybody seemed to have a good time. Music was furnished by Messrs. Stewart and Clarence Edwards. Refreshments were served in abundance. Dancing was engaged in until a late hour.

Miss Edna Strong is visiting Mrs. J. M. Colverhouse in Baltimore. Miss Strong seems to be enjoying herself as she has over staid her time of returning.

Mr. Gilmor Bryden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Singleton Bryden, having spent a few weeks visit with his parents, returned to Baltimore Friday where he has found employment.

Miss Lula Strong has returned to her home, "Belle View," after a week's visit at her sister's, Mrs. W. O. Selby.

Mrs. Augusta Scoone, of Baltimore, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Marion Colison.

Mrs. Mary Stouffer, mother of Mrs. Washington Crouch, is quite sick at the home of the latter.

Glad the Tolchester boat has resumed her trips. Some of our residents made the round trip to Baltimore Saturday.
