Dear Sir —

I send the enclosed letters and the accompanying papers, which I wish you to forward to Liberia by the very first Packet. We understand we start in a few days. I wish you to buy such things as you think will suit an emigrant and his wife who have been in Liberia from a few years, to the amount of eight or ten dollars. Pay the postage on the letters and for the goods you may send and show the bill with this letter to J. W. & G. Hopkins who will pay you the amount, and charge it to my account. Write to me at once and send the bill for the goods sent. Your attention to this will greatly oblige me. The package containing the articles sent must be directed to Jacob Coles, Monrovia, Liberia.

Coles writes me that he has sent to me a bottle of Palm oil, and a Hammock, and also the same articles to Mr Peter Henchinger of this place. [illegible] in the Packet which lately arrived under the command of Capt. Hall. Will you please forward them to me by express. J. W. & G. Hopkins will pay any bill of expenses.
