Chesapeake City Nov 4 1854

Dear Bro Seys

Your letter of 2nd inst came duly to hand. I learned from a Bro of this place, who saw you in Elkton some days since, that you contemplated a visit to this place in a short time.

I hastily accede your wishes, and shall be happy to see you, and give you the use of my pulpits on Sabbath 12th of November.

Chesapeake is not my morning or principal appointment.

Bethel, from which my field of labour takes its name, is the chief preaching place and about 1½ miles from this town.

My appointments on the day you propose to be with us, will be Bethel 11½ A.M. Chesapeake 6½ P.M. Yours in Christ,

Please send me word, how you will come & when, so that we may be on the lookout. Mr Pink
