My Dear Sir

I am once more at home! (II A, 2)
Happy am I too! I arrived this P.M. at 3 O. and Mr. Fletcher brought your letters demanding me in Baltimore next Monday. But I am all uncertain — My eyes are not open! — I cannot see how the land lies! — I ought to see you to settle some preliminaries — and yet from all I can learn from Mr. F. (I have not been to the office & cannot go there tonight) I have not received the answers from southern emigrants which I ought to have to decide about Mr. Cowan's emigrants — & all that! In fact I feel as if I belonged to that new political party the "Pizerinctums" not to be depended upon for any thing particular! — To conclude — if I come Monday — You will see me: if I do not — you must say to them Call tomorrow at 11 O.

Yours W. McSain
