STYLE THAT'S WORTH WHILE

Is worth the price. This is just as true of vehicles as of anything else. The brains and skill that make style possible do cost and must be paid for. You can always get cheap STYLE-IMITATION, NEVER DUPLICATION. Imitation always shouts aloud.

CORTLAND WAGON COMPANY VEHICLES

get a stronger hold on the public every day because of possessing genuine style. Though it costs more to make them you get them for but little above the price of ordinary vehicles, because they're sold so close to cost of production. In other words, nothing is charged for Cortland reputation. And then to style is added wear and comfort.

Cortland Wagon Company Vehicles stand up, are sold at a fair price and by us, who you know will make good any just claims. We can supply them in 140 styles. We also represent other reliable manufacturers, with complete lines. Won't you call?

WE SELL

The Value Of An "Amen"

The good brethren of the New York Conference of the M. E. Church must have felt a shock that threatened them with permanent paralysis, when Editor W. T. Stead told them that "nobody cares a D—— for an Amen unless it leads to something." The distinguished English Author and Reformer was pleading for the assistance of American Methodists in the movement for international peace, and his words stirred the great gathering to hearty shouts of approval. "Amen," "Amen," came in a chorus from all parts of the church. Then it was that the speaker unburdoned his feelings, and in language more forcible than elegant, gave expression to the small valuation which he puts upon sentiment without strenousness, upon prayer without powder. And his valuation was pre-eminently correct. We can even find it in our hearts to forgive him the coarse expression of his feelings, we can so thoroughly appreciate the feelings themselves. Indeed there is hardly anything more discouraging, and certainly nothing more exasperating than the way in which hosts of really good people content themselves with some small measure of sentimental approval for the moral movements of the World. That is cheap and easy. Most any man can find time and place for a little prayer in behalf of righteous causes. One can do that sort of thing in his dressing gown and slippers, by a comfortable fireside; or in the "cool of the tent" can applaud the men who are doing battle on the hot, scarred plains. But how much is such praying or applauding worth, when no real and honest support goes with it? The "Amen" that counts is the Amen of an army with banners. The shout that reaches no farther than the four walls of a prayer-meeting has no terrors for the enemy. Plenty of worthy folks want this world to go right and straight, but they want to bear little or no part in the making of it go. A good stiff fight frightens them half to death, as if any "goodly heritage" were ever won without a fight—from the days of Canaan's conquest even until now. A rainy election fastens them up in the house—they are like cats, afraid of getting their feet wet. The slightest pretext of personal business will hold them aloof from public affairs, as if public affairs were anything else in the world than the affairs of persons, taken in the aggregate. Yes, there is no wiping out the fact that, in a great many instances the "best citizenship" is the "worst citizenship," because it is too cold or too indifferent to endure a fair share of the hard knocks by which every civic and every moral victory is won. Much obliged, gentlemen, for your "Amens" and your "pats on the back," but what we want is your enlistment in the ranks. "Indeed, but for this villainous saltpetre, I myself, would be a soldier." Oh, well, now, if you can't stand the smell of powder, and the dust of the fray chokes you, keep out of it. But for heaven's sake, stop shouting in public. "Onward, Christian Soldier;" and just sing softly to yourself in the privacy of your own bed-room, "Ornery Christian Soldier, I'm not worth a cuss."—Cecil Whig.

AFTER FIFTY YEARS.

List of Jurors From First District in the Year 1859—Only Four Now Living.

An old paper was found last week by Mr. Wm. Steele, of Galena, in the Rogers house at Galena. It was written by the late Hon. Jesse K. Hines, then the Clerk of the Circuit Court. Of the 40 persons on the jury in 1859 from the First district, only four are now living. Those three are David Clements, Esq., Samuel Hurlock, Esq., R. S. Griffith, Esq. and James W. Hurtt, Esq.

The other persons composing that jury and now gone to their eternal home were the following :—

Grand Jury of October Term 1859. John W. Ireland, Thomas J. Britton, William Moffett, David C. Blackiston, Samuel C. Hurlock, Elijah E. Miller, James Spear, David Clements, Simon W. Boyer.

Petit Juror to October Term 1859. John M. Comegys, Edwin Crouch, Wm. Gooding, John E. Cacy, Caleb W. Spry, Dr. C. H. B. Massey, Wm. J. Griffith, William C. Meginness.

Petit Jurors to April Term 1860. Richard Moffett, Alfred Chrisfield, Robert S. Griffith, William F. Smyth, John Frazier, Cornelius J. Scott, John F. Newnam, Philip F. Rasin, James L. Davis, Samuel Cacy, Jefferson McWhorter, William B. Wallis, C. W. Spry.

THE SPRING CLEANING

Every housewife looks forward to Spring cleaning as an event of importance to her household. The ceremonies incident to the event are a little apt to make things unpleasant for most of the members of the family, but the final result is salutary. The human body sometimes stands in need of a similar process, but this is the case with the body whose natural functions are deranged. If the bowels act freely and regularly nothing in the nature of a periodical "housecleaning" will be required. It is those who are the victims of chronic constipation who have to undergo those inconveniences. In the treatment of constipation experienced physicians are now using with success the following prescription : ½ oz. Fluid Extract of Senna, ½ oz. Rochelle Salts, 1 oz. Aro-Sagrada, 30 grains Bi-carbonate of Soda, ½ oz. water and 1½ ozs. Glycerine. The dose is a teaspoonful at bed-time and before each meal and this is continued until there is free movement of the bowels. The ingredients indicated are obtainable at any first-class pharmacy

Do You Want to Know What You Swallow?

There is a growing sentiment in this country in favor of MEDICINES OF KNOWN COMPOSITION. It is but natural that one should have some interest in the composition of that which he or she is expected to swallow, whether it be food, drink or medicine.

Recognizing this growing disposition on the part of the public, and satisfied that the fullest publicity can only add to the well-earned reputation of his medicines, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., has "taken time by the forelock," as it were, and is publishing broadcast a list of all the ingredients entering into his leading medicines, the "Golden Medical Discovery" the popular liver invigorator, stomach tonic, blood purifier and heart regulator; also of his "Favorite Prescription" for weak, over-worked, broken-down, nervous and invalid women.

This bold and out-spoken movement on the part of Dr. Pierce, has, by showing exactly what his well-known medicines are composed of, completely disarmed all harping critics who have heretofore unjustly attacked them. A little pamphlet has been compiled, from the standard medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, showing the strongest endorsements by leading medical writers of the several ingredients which enter into Dr. Pierce's medicines. A copy of this little book is mailed free to any one desiring to learn more concerning the valuable, native, medicinal plants which enter into the composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are tiny, sugar-coated anti-bilious granules. They regulate and invigorate Stomach, Liver and Bowels. Do not beget the "pill habit," but cure constipation. One or two each day for a laxative and regulator, three or four for an active cathartic. Once tried always in favor.

$50,000 GIVEN AWAY, in copies of The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book that sold to the extent of 500,000 copies a few years ago, at $1.50 per copy. Last year we gave away $30,000 worth of these invaluable books. This year we shall give away $50,000 worth of them. Will YOU share in this benefit? If so, send only 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only for book in stiff paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
