Dr Samy Hall.

Dear Sir:

An earnest desire to be about my Father's business has caused me to look about and see what would be the most useful position which I could obtain. my conclusion in the case has been that if I could become a successful agent for the Colonization Society I might be as useful as in any capacity. Excuse me therefore for this address communication.

I have an earnest desire if you are in need of an agent to obtain a situation as such. I think that much more might be done than is being done for the cause by the means of agents. Our place for instance has had no agent in it for a long time. indeed I do not know that there has ever been an agent here. and yet there are willing hearts and deep purses among us.

It becomes me not to speak of my own abilities or qualifications for the post and yet something you will of course wish to
