SASSAFRAS ITEMS.

The Charlestown, Md., Epworth League of the M. E. Church realized over $27 for church improvements from their recent April shad bake.

Mr. Jacob T. Shallcross, one of our prominent gentlemen, is still sojourning at Norfolk, Va., and taking in the Jamestown Exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sylvester entertained their pastor, Rev. C. M. Cullen, for dinner on Sunday.

Rev. C. M. Cullen preached an excellent sermon in the Rehoboth M. P. Church on Sunday morning to a large delighted congregation. Mr. Cullen is greatly beliked.

Dr. John H. Jarman, a member of the Maryland commissioners, and Messrs. I. M. Parr and Charles R. Ford attended the opening exercises of the Jamestown Exposition.

The growers here have been much retarded by cold wet weather, both with their corn planting and asparagus growing.

Our fishermen are catching quantities of shad but the prices still continue high, owing possibly to the cold weather which we are having.

Mrs. John F. Ernest is looking forward to a great deal of pleasure as she is expecting her brother, Mr. James Reynolds, of Colorado, to pay her an extended visit and she has not seen him for about five years.

A great many from here attended the funeral of Mr. Walter Neff, of Middle Neck, who died at his home there on Saturday after an illness of two days, he was a young man greatly beloved by all. The funeral took place on Tuesday and was very largely attended, interment at Forest cemetery, at Middletown. his parents have the sympathy of the entire community, he was only about 20 years old and his death was very sad.

Mrs. Louis H. Dreka and daughter, Miss May, visited their cousin, Dr. Clark and family, of Middletown on Saturday last.

Mrs. John F. Ernest attended the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Martha Reynolds Harris, at Townsend on Tuesday last in company with her son, John R. Ernest. Mrs. Harris had been an invalid confined to her room for three years. She was a lovely christian lady and greatly beloved by all. Interment took place from her daughters home, Mr. and Mrs. John Lattomnus at Townsend. Interment at Odd Fellows cemetary at Smyrna. She was in her 79th year.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson visited his parents for the day on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson, of Sassafras.

Miss Helen Davis, the teacher here attended the funeral of Mr. W. Neff on Tuesday.

LOCUST GROVE LOCALS.

Mr. George Cropper, of Locust Grove, has been the guest of his mother, Mrs. S. S. Price, of near town.

Attorney General Bryan has given an opinion on the subject in which he says that no oyster below 2½ inches in length can be taken for seed purposes.

Progressive Betterton.

Improvements have already begun for the summer attractions, such as skating rink, pool parlors and more bowling alleys.

Betterton needs more attractions along this line to make the resort more popular in summer as there is nothing to boom it in winter, no work for the people, nothing to do but loaf, some few have employment the year through, the places of business are small and cannot give employment to all who have to work for a livelihood. We would like to see something erected here to give work the year round.

Last week seemed to be the week for Politicians and Fish Solicitors. Senator Foxwell called on some few of his friends, but he did not seem to be looked after quite as eagerly as about fourteen months ago. We must try and forget the past. The good book teaches us when we are slapped on one cheek just turn the other and take another slap.

Mr. John Brice is being urged by his many friends to be a candidate for sheriff. Capt. Brice seems to have grown quite popular the last few weeks, no doubt he would make a good sheriff for he is large in statue.

Our men who are engaged in fishing have had an excellent season, though they earn every dollar they get, they pay the highest of wages and are subjected to the most severe weather, especially this spring for we have had very little calm and sunshine.

Last Tuesday morning the boys were looking after their nets on the shore, when a solicitor from one of the houses in Philadelphia appeared on the scene. The weather cold and damp with drizzle of rain, the gentleman thought he would show his kindly feeling for them, said boys come over to the Chesapeake Hotel and have a drink, the fellows thought he had brought plenty with him and readily accepted the invitation, upon reaching the office of the hotel he called for the bartender when to his surprise he was told this was a dry town. The question is who was the most disappointed, the fishermen or solicitor?

Mr. Charles Brice has opened a butcher shop and is doing quite a large business better than he expected, he handles fresh vegetables and the finest of meats, we wish him success in his new enterprise as he is a boy of unquestionable character.

We are anxiously awaiting the arrival of Spring as it has been shipped by slow freight and been side tracked some where along the line.
