Dr Hall Dear Sir

Enclosed you will find an order on the Gentlemen I named for the amount of the bill, which you kindly advanced for provision, sent to James Dent, I hope they may find him living and well, I approve of your plan should he not be living, if you hear of those things reaching him, or tidings in any way from him be pleased and let me hear from you, he was a favorite servant, his only fault, he loved a dram too well I owe you Sir a debt of gratitude for this act of benevolence and mercy in advancing the money and forwarding those things - - -

Very Respectfully yours
