ROCK HALL ITEMS

Mrs. S. J. Wickes left here on Wednesday of last week for Baltimore to consult a specialist in regard to her impaired health. This is the first time she has been outside of her own yard for two years. Mrs. Wickes will be gone for at least two weeks, in the mean time Mr. Wickes and Tiger are looking out for home interests. The former is getting along O. K. but Tiger, poor fellow, is lonely and restless.

Mr. V. W. Kendall was down among us on Saturday for the purpose of seeing the people in large number. He was just one week too late to see the people en masse. The Saturday previous the town was thronged with humanity in an unusual manner. Young Mr. Vickers was down here a few days before Mr. Kendall came, the two were looking for the people. Wonder what means this anxiety on the part of these two young men representing the two political parties? If they are on business or social matters they are welcome in our midst at any "old time", but, if they are vote hunting the people here want very little to do with them. What we want is for the G. O. P. to adopt the Crawford system like the Democrats have then let those desiring votes announce their candidacy and the people will then judge the merits of each and vote accordingly. However, come again gentlemen when you feel like it, we are glad to see you and entertain you.

Mr. C. J. B. Mitchell, of Queenstown, was sporting in our waters on Monday in search of a canoe that used to belong to his father and is supposed to be now owned by some of our watermen. He failed to get any definite information concerning the boat. Any one knowing of her whereabouts will confer a favor by informing Mr. Mitchell.

Another cold and juicy month has been numbered with the past. It has been a trying one to everybody in this section. Work is away behind, some corn is nearing the thinning stage and some is just coming up. Much land is not yet planted and some farmers have not plowed a furrow for corn. Wheat is heading but is not as promising as its earlier stages indicated, grass is flourishing, fruit has the appearance of being very scarce during the summer but we are all trying to keep on the bright side of life for we are sure the good things outnumber the bad.

Owing to the illness of the principal our High School graduating class did not assemble at the M. E. Church on Sunday to hear Rev. Burr, who it was announced last week would preach to them. The Reverend gentleman will preach to the school tomorrow morning and at the same time will also address the P. O. S. of A. who will be present in a body. Tomorrow evening the regular Children's Day exercises will take place at the church and also at the M. P. Church in the morning and evening. Mr. M. L. Maslin, the superintendent of the school anticipates a full house to witness and participate in the finest exercises of the kind in the history of Wesleyan Chapel.

Numerous parties observed Decoration Day on Thursday.

Owing to Memorial Day coming so soon after decoration Day the Odd Fellows of this place will hold the two services on Tuesday afternoon at Wesleyan Cemetery.

Under the auspices of the Rehoboth M. P. Church the ladies will hold a strawberry and ice cream festival on the Rehoboth church grounds on Wednesday evening, June 12th. The public is invited to come and assist in a good cause. There is every promise of a delightful evening.

Yet with the vast number of hats that have been turned out, we have a plentiful supply for the unfortunate ones—those who have as yet been unable to buy. We are showing the daintiest things in Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats and Sailors, and a gorgeous array of Trimmings, such as Flowers, Ribbons, Plumes, Grass, Feathers, etc.
