My Dear Sir

Yours of yesterday is received, and I thank you for it! I know it is time — I have been feeling it painfully for several days — & hoping for just such a letter as yours of yesterday. I telegraphed you this A. M. that you may expect me tomorrow. I should have gone today — but am obliged to have a meeting of Committee tonight. I may see you before you see this — but cannot tell at present whether I shall go in the 6 or 8½ o'c. train as a lady wants my company — & so I must go when she does.

Yours truly,
M. M. Sair
