125TH ANNIVERSARY OF WASHINGTON COLLEGE

Smith Hall Admired By Everyone—Eloquent and Masterful Addresses—Fine Singing and Creditable Essays—The Alumni Banquet A Brilliant Feature.

GOV. WARFIELD AND OTHER PROMINENT PERSONS PRESENT.

This has been a memorable week in the history of Washington College and also in that of Chestertown. This venerable institution is the pride of every good citizen and since the infusion of new life greater interest has been manifested by our townspeople and an increasing pride developed. A prettier scene cannot be found anywhere than at this college with its well-kept campus and splendid buildings including the magnificent Smith Hall. This latter building is certainly a credit to the contractor, Mr. A. M. Culp, and all who in any way contributed to its erection. Following the dedicatory services of Friday came the annual concert by the Glee and Mandolin club, the following program being rendered:

FIRST PART

The Festal Day is Come ..... Atkinson
Glee Club
Vision of Rest Waltzes ..... Baker

Mandolin Club
College Ties ..... Glee Club

On Sunday morning Rev. Dr. Thomas H. Lewis, president of Western Maryland College, preached the baccalaureate sermon to the graduates. The auditorium was crowded to its utmost capacity, and all present were delighted with the profound and masterly discourse of the learned scholar and theologian his theme being "Heroism" as exemplified in "The Cross."

Dr. Hiram W. Kellogg, pastor of Grace M. E. Church, Wilmington, was scheduled to preach at night the sermon to the Christian Associations, but owing to failure to make train connections Dr. Kellogg did not arrive on time and Dr. Lewis gave another very excellent sermon at night on "Redemption." Dr. Lewis is a "minute" man and greatly relieved Dr. Cain and the College from an embarrassing situation.

The declamation contest for the Dr. H. G. Simpers medal took place Tuesday morning, the program being as follows:

Overture, "Mlle. Modiste" ..... Herbert
Weber's Orchestra
Napoleon at the Pyramids, Conlyn E. Noland
Tolchester, Md.
The Grave of Napoleon ..... Walter Hicks Davis
Street, Md.
"Reminiscences of the South" ..... Solomon

Cambridge, Md.
Pitt, on Being Taunted by Mr. Walpole,
Thomas Wilson Eliason
Chestertown, Md.
"Bits of Remicks Hits No. 2 ..... Lampe
Weber's Orchestra
Vision of American History, Chas. Bayly Morris
Princess Anne, Md.
The Death of Garfield, William Raymond Moody
Chestertown, Md.

The judges were Rev. Dr. F. T. Little, Herbert E. Perkins, Esq. and L. Bates Russell. The decision of the judges was made without consultation and according to graduated marks for relative points of merit. The decision awarded first honor to Mr. Charles Bayly Morris, and second place to Mr. Ruskin Bright Warren.

One of the pleasing events of the week was the program presented by the Mt. Vernon Literary Society, the principal feature being a debate in which the participants evidenced high talent. The judges Hon. James A. Pearce, Hon. Marion deK. Smith and Lewin W. Wickes, Esq., awarded their decision in favor of Messrs. C. F. Wheatley and W. H. Toulson, of Chestertown. The program was as follows:

Address of Welcome ..... President. W. R. Huey
Brief History of the Mt. Vernon Society, A. R. Hitch.
Music, Overture (Poet and Peasant) ..... Suppe
Oration, The Age of Truth ..... W. H. Davis
Music, Selection (Bits of Broadway Hits,) Smith
Declamation, Decoration Day Address, W. R. Moody.
Humorous Selection, "Who's Afraid," J. C. Turner, Jr.
Declamation, A Picture of War, E. G. Breeding
Music, Medly (Topical Song) ..... Evans
Debate: Resolved, That the United States Senate has degenerated.
Affirmative ..... C. F. Wheatley, W. H. Toulson
Negative ..... C. W. Long, C. B. Morris

Anniversary Celebration.

At 2.30 P. M. the 125th anniversary of the founding of the College was celebrated in a most elegant manner. The central figure on the stage was His Excellency Edwin Warfield, Governor of Maryland, who came to Chestertown by special steamer and received a hearty welcome. The Governor accompanied by Dr. M. Bates Stephens, state superintendent of public education, and Rev. Dr. J. Reese Murray, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, a friend of long and intimate acquaintance, he made the trip on the State Steamer P. F. Thomas, Commander T. C. B. Howard, from Centreville to Chestertown, where he was met by Hope H. Barroll, Esq., by whom he was driven to Washington College.

At the Governor's request he was first conveyed to William Smith Hall, the magnificent new building, whose brick walls, faced with white, arise from the expanse of the broad carpet of green, flanked by a sloping campus, terraced at the north, which overlooks the nestling town of Chestertown. The Governor went first to William Smith Hall because it is a new building erected by the State and he was anxious to ascertain if it had been constructed according to contract. The program of the afternoon was as follows:

Prayer ..... by Bishop W. F. Adams
The Festal Day, Glee Club, Orchestra and Piano
Address, His Excellency Edwin Warfield, LL. D., Governor of Maryland, "The Establishment of Free Education in Maryland."
Gloria ..... Mosart
Chorus, Orchestra and Piano.
Address, Dean Josiah H. Penniman, PH. D., LL. D., University of Pennsylvania. "The College Graduate and His Public Obligation."
College Ode, Composed by Professor Allan S. Neilson. Chorus, Orchestra and Piano.
Address, Professor Joseph S. Ames, Ph. D., Johns Hopkins University. "The Modern Aspects of Education."
"Hail, Bright Abode," ..... From Tannhauser
Chorus, Orchestra, and Piano
Address, James W. Cain, LL. D., President of Washington College. "The Function of the College."
"Hallelujah," ..... From the Messiah

The Governor's address is in hand and will be published next week.

Commencement Exercises.

Wednesday morning was an ideal commencement day and the climax to one of the most brilliant periods in the College's life was noted. College Ode.

BY PROFESSOR ALLAN S. NEILSON.

Who cometh there with eager tread,
A halo blazing 'bout her head,
To dwell with thee in joyfulness,
Thy purposes and cause to bless?
'Tis Future, bride of time-to-be;
Thy life's unspanned by memory.
For thou from century to century
Shall live, our Washington, eternally.

The ancient hills here college-crowned,
Each sacred foot of hallowed ground,
Each blade, and bloom on campus blown,
Doth cry in joy, "The Sun! The Sun!
"From close enfolding mists we're free,
"Far fled the fog, obscurity!"
Bright shines the sun; in dew-decked freshness, see
Our college rise, to live eternally!

To thee Smith Hall we dedicate
In love of thee for love of state.
And too, the song of sleet on leaves,
The song of snow on wintry reeds,
The ripple soft of Chester rare,
The trill of lark in shim'ring air—
All these in praise, we consecrate, O Fair;
Aye, service long of min'st'ring men declare.

The Alumni Banquet.

The Alumni banquet this year was held in West Hall where all students have heretofore been accustomed to meet for chapel and which was used for this purpose for the last time last Thursday. It was beautifully decorated with college flags and bunting while the tables were adorned with June roses. Caterer Hughes, of Baltimore, served the following menu in a fine style, while Weber's orchestra furnished sweet music:

Clam Cocktail — Tobasco Sauce
Radishes — Olives
Julienne Soup
Soft Crabs on Toast — Tartar Sauce
Fried Spring Chicken — Cream Sauce
New Peas — New Potatoes
Roman Punch
Braised Sweetbreads — Mushroom Sauce
Old Smithfield Ham
French Dressing — White Lettuce
Individual Blocks Ice Cream
Mixed Cakes — Mint Wafers
Almonds — Cheese and Crackers
Cafe Noir

The toast master was James W. Chapman, Jr., Esq., and the college never had a better one. His introductions were apt, learned and appropo and gave the speakers a happy thought upon which to base their remarks. First came the Governor who captured his hearers by his clever speech which abounded in laughable incidents and stories. His reference to the ladies further strengthened his reputation for gallantry and evidence of appreciation for the fair sex. The other speakers were equally attractive in their remarks and Judge Pearce closed the speech-making with an "address" which was sensible and in keeping with the polished jurist's good judgement.

A notable feature of the gathering were the kindly greetings brought by representatives of different colleges and institutions from all over the State, as follows:

William Ware Kimball, B. D., representing the descendants of Rev. William Smith, D. D.; John David Epes, A. B., representing Baltimore City College.; William Forbes Adams, D. C. L., D. D., Bishop of Easton; William Rudolph Smith, member of the Philadelphia Bar, representing the descendants of Rev. William Smith, D. D.; Thomas Hamilton Lewis, D. D., President, representing Western Maryland College; Josiah Harmar Penniman, Ph. D., LL. D., Dean of the College Faculty, representing The University of Pennsylvania; Joseph Sweetman Ames, Ph., D., Director of the Physical Laboratory, representing John Hopkins University; Wm. Sydney Thayer, A. B., M. D., representing Harvard University; George Matthews Sharp, LL. B., A. M., representing Yale University; Howard McClenahan, E. E., M. S., representing Princeton University; George Hutcheson Denny, Ph. D., LL. D., President, representing Washington and Lee University; Thomas Ireland Elliott, LL. B., representing the University of Maryland; James Middleton Munroe, A. B., LL. B., representing St. John's College; Richard William Silvester, B. S., President, representing Maryland Agricultural College; George Lincoln Burr, LL. D., Litt. D., representing Cornell University; Thaddeus Peter Thomas, A. M., Ph. D., representing The Woman's College, of Baltimore; James Fraser, F. G., Ph. D., President, representing New Windsor College; Brother Dennis, F. C. S., President, representing Calvert Hall College; Hiram W. Kellogg, Ph. D., D. D.; Kirt. Seyferth, A. B., M. D., representing Mt. St. Joseph College.

Those who surrounded the festal board were Governor Edwin Warfield, Judge George M. Sharp, Judge J. A. Pearce, Dr. W. S. Thayer, Dr. Howard McClenahan, Dr. Joseph S. Ames, Dr. James W. Cain, James M. Munroe, Esq., Dr. James Fraser, Dean Josiah H. Penniman, Hon. James R. Brewer, Hon. James E. Ellegood, James W. Chapman, Harry Hopkins, W. Prior Armstrong, Senator Clarence W. Perkins, Dr. D. L. Wm. J. Vannort, Rev. Leonard B. Smith, Samuel Vannort, Dr. Horace Nicholson.

Misses Violet M. Evans, Addie S. Hurlock, Bessie and Mary Nicholson, Mary Brown, Sue W. Dunbracco and Sarah N. Hessey.

An enjoyable feature of the exercises this year was the beautiful music furnished by a choir of picked voices under the skillful direction of Mrs. Cain, wife of President James W. Cain. The soloists were Mrs. Cain, Mrs. Merrick Clements, Misses Eva Hurlock, Isabel Beck, Violet Evans, Hallie Toulson, Messrs. George White, A. M. Culp and Thos. W. Perkins. The music would certainly be hard to excel.

The guests were welcomed by a committee of arrangements consisting of Dr. James W. Cain, Marion deK. Smith and Lewin W. Wickes, of the Chestertown bar, and Dr. W. Frank Hines.

The banquet committee consisted of Wm. B. Usilton, Jr., Chairman, Lewin W. Wickes, Esq. and David B. Ford.

A Delightful Meeting.

The Rich Neck Farmers Club met at the home of Mr. Mrs. J. Frank Baxter, Thursday afternoon, June 20th. The meeting was called to order at 4.30 p. m. by the Treasurer, J. T. Anthony, through the absence of R. I. Walker. The meeting was opened with prayer, by Mr. Charles H. Jefferson, after which the club was given a very able and instructive address by Prof. Sylvester, of the Maryland Agricultural College, of College Park, on wheat and various other subjects. At six o'clock the guests were invited to the dining room where a bountiful and delicious supper was served after which refreshments were served in abundance. Those present were President R. I. Walker and wife, Treasurer J. T. Anthony and wife, Secretary H. P. Skipper and wife, Messrs. C. H. Jefferson and wife, S. R. Hurlock and wife, W. T. Baxter and wife, J. B. Newnam and wife, C. A.
