QUALITY is sewn into every seam in every suit sent out from our establishment. It is tht basis on which our reputation has been built. Quality means perfect workmanship, style and enduring fabric—fit and precision of all details. Quality means everything. From the man's Suit at six fifty to the best you'll find the best that can be obtained at the price, no matter where you go.

DONT WAIT

longer than possible before you look the line over. We have a very good assortment yet. But a couple weeks will deplete it.

As usual we have selected the odd Suits in Mens, Boys and Childrens, from the various lines and marked them at closing out prices. Some good things are among them if you get here early enough.

PERSONAL TIDINGS

Mrs. Annie Phillips Lewis, a half sister to the late Miss Etta Edwards, arrived in Chestertown Monday in answer to a summons from the Orphan's Court. She was placed in a Home in Easton through the influence of Rev. S. C. Roberts when about five years of age and had not seen her mother from that day until Monday. The meeting was very affecting and occurred in Herbert E. Perkins Esq's., office. The daughter did not know her mother but the latter recognized Mrs. Lewis as her daughter and proved her identity. Mrs. Lewis lives in Nantucket, Massachusetts, and is a refined and accomplished lady. It was with much difficulty that she was located by Mr. Perkins, the administrator.

Mr. G. Hines Thomas has been in town this week and exhibited a beautiful jar of Spencer's seedless apples for which he is general agent. Mr. Thomas is now located in Baltimore city. He reports his father as enjoying a visit to his daughter, Miss May, at Blue Ridge Summit, but in very poor health.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Penn and two children, of Norton, Va., are guests of her sister, Mrs. W. E. Edwards, at Pomona. They are on their way to the Jamestown Exposition.

Among the graduates of the University of Pennsylvania law school on Wednesday last was Mr. George R. Biddle, son of Mr. George S. Biddle, of near Chestertown.

Miss Sophia Beck has been enjoying a visit to the Jamestown Exposition.

Misses May and Lilly Crow of New York, are visiting their brother, Mr. Owen B. Crow on High street.

Mrs. William Wilson Crossley, of 159 West 103rd street, New York, is at her summer home, Walnut Cottage, Lynch, Md., with her is Miss Nellie Howes, of No. 167 West 81st street, New York, as her guest while in Maryland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Copper are attending the State Bankers' Association at Jamestown this week. The Sun says: "There was a spirited contest for the office of president between the friends of Mr. William B. Copper, cashier of the Second National Bank of Chestertown, who was placed in nomination by the nominating committee, and the admirers of Col. Harry B. Wilcox. The vote was viva voce, and it was literally "23" for Mr. Copper, for whom two dozen votes, lacking one, were cast. Colonel Wilcox got just 10 more votes."

The many friends of Miss Pearl Griffin will be glad to learn that she is making a great success as one of the managers of a tea exhibit in the Pure Food Show at Jamestown. She will be glad to see any visitors from this section.

Mr. J. Thomas Kendall, after a very pleasant and successful year as principal of the Queenstown school, Queen Anne's county, has returned to his home in Fairlee, and has secured a position at Tolchester to run during his school vacation.

Mr. George S. Vickers writing from Niagara Falls says, "I am trying the pulse of this state. Look out for Hughes. Bryan will beat either Roosevelt or Hughes and Taft cannot carry his own State, so I think Bryan is a good bet."

Mr. C. S. York, Jr., has resigned his position at the Voshell House and accepted a position with the National Biscuit Co.

Miss Louisa Urie is entertaining Miss Jeannette D. Peterson.

Miss Myrtle Mann, of Betterton, is the guest of Miss Reba Strong, on High street.

WEDDING EVENTS.

MCCAULEY—COCHRAN.

Mrs. Eva McCauley announces the marriage of her daughter, Nellie, to F. Keith Cochran, Wednesday evening, June 19, 1907, at the Parochial Residence by Rev. Father Daily.

VALLIANT—WRIGHT.

A pretty wedding took place Saturday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wright, in Easton, when Miss Ethel Aldridge, daughter of the late Fredus Aldridge, and Mr. Victor Valliant, of New York, were married. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Ernest Valliant, of New York. Rev. J. W. Chesley, of St. Michaels, Md., an uncle by marriage of the groom, assisted by Rev. W. Dunbar Gould, of Baltimore, cousin of the bride, performed the ceremony. A breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Valliant left for a tour north. They will reside in New York. Miss Aldridge has been teacher in the kindergarten department of the primary school of Easton and was popular in Easton as also in Chestertown where she visited frequently.

HILL—SEWARD.

Miss Grace Seward, daughter of J. H. Seward, of J. H. Seward & Co., fruit dealers, was quietly married to Mr. Frank L. Hill in Washington Wednesday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. F. Widbigler. While it was known to not a few of their friends that Mr. Hill and Miss Seward were engaged, the early wedding came as a surprise. At the bride's home nothing other than the fact that the ceremony had taken place and that Mr. and Mrs. Hill would return to Baltimore Friday was known. Mr. Hill is a member of the firm of Walter E. Hill & Co. He has been living with his brother at 117 West Saratoga street. He is a son of Capt. Daniel Hill, of Kennedyville. The bride is well-known in Kent having been a frequent visitor here.

MILBY—IVENS.

The home of Mrs. Sarah A. Ivens, High street, Chestertown, was the scene of a pretty wedding last Wednesday evening, the contracting parties being Miss Eliza Worthington Ivens and Mr. Wm. Price Milby, the courteous operator and agent at Kennedyville. Dr. H. G. Simpers was best man and the bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Harry Ivens. Misses Harriet Reed and Catherine Elliott were the cute little flower girls. Rev. W. L. White performed the ceremony and Miss Clara Usilton played the wedding march. The bride was tastily attired in white and carried a bouquet of June roses. After the ceremony refreshments were served and the bridal couple departed for their new home at Kennedyville later in the evening.

ELDERDICE—NORRIS.

Miss Emma Celeste Norris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. T. Norris, of Van Bibber, Thursday became the bride of Rev. Charles M. Elderdice, pastor of Christ Methodist Protestant Church, North avenue, Baltimore, and formerly of near Edesville.

The ceremony took place on the beautiful lawn of Horse Range Farm, the home of the bride's parents, and was performed by Rev. James Elderdice, of Heathville, Northumberland county, Va., father of the groom. The bride was attended by her aunt, Mrs. J. R. Fisher, of Philadelphia, as matron of honor, while the groom was attended by Rev. Winifred P. Roberts, of Cannon, Sussex county, Del., as best man. The bride wore a handsome gown of white Paris muslin over white taffeta, and carried white rosebuds and maidenhair ferns. Her goingaway costume was a brown taffeta traveling suit, eton effect.

The Song of the Hair

There are four verses. Verse 1. Ayer's Hair Vigor stops falling hair. Verse 2. Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the hair grow. Verse 3. Ayer's Hair Vigor cures dandruff. Verse 4. Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the scalp healthy, and keeps it so. It is a regular hair-food; this is the real secret of its wonderful success.
