Death's Doings.

Thos. Jefferson H. Saunders died at his home in Rock Hall early yesterday morning. Mr. Saunders had been sick for a long time but with it all was of a most cheerful disposition and bore his affliction philosophically. He was a frequent visitor to the NEWS office up to several months ago and upon all subjects was a fluent and intelligent talker. He was born near Crumpton 66 years ago and has lived in Kent all his life. Up to two years ago he lived on his farm in Broad Neck. He leaves a widow and two children, Elizabeth and Prof. Oswald Saunders, one of the teachers of Rock Hall High School. The funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, interment at Wesley Chapel, Rev. M. Compher officiating.

DOROTHY BARBER VICKERS.

Dorothy Barber Vickers, youngest child of Harrison W. Vickers, Esq., and wife, passed into the cloudless land of peace on the morning of the tenth day of July; after ten weeks of suffering with fever and other complications. She was removed to Atlantic City in the hope that a change of air might benefit her and all that human mind could think of was lavished upon the precious life, but God entered into His garden and plucked Dorothy as one of the fairest lillies to transplant her into His heavenly garden. The life of this dear child, 13 years of age, unfolded quietly, developed modestly in the circle of home. To have had her even for these few moments must remain forever a joy and to follow her upward waist more than a sacred privilege.

In the school and church she was always a central figure when there was any speaking to be done, always winning her hearers by a voice both sweet and pathetic. A child's voice? Yes, a child's voice, but recalling in its fine tones, and in its earnestness and compass the saying of the Savior, "out of the mouth of babes and nurslings God hath perfected praise." She will be missed O so sadly! in those places where she has been wont to go; but her influence is not lost, and the message of her life will gather meaning in the molding of noble careers where her absence is most felt. For her there could be nothing higher than this early and glorious translation into the restful bosom of God. But for those left behind, how dark and sorrowful the passage into the vale of silence and tears. Yet one has said, "fear not, I am with thee, O be not dismayed; let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid." And we cling to that message and believe it.

Funeral services were held at the house yesterday at 6 P. M., interment private in Chester cemetery, Rev. W. L. White officiating; J. E. Ferguson undertaker.

The following were the bearers: William P. Constable, Ogle Marbury, Frank B. Hines, Herbert E. Perkins, Thos. W. Eliason, Jr., Thomas Massey.

MRS. S. A. NOWLAND.

Mrs. Sarah Ann Nowland died at the home of her devoted daughter, Miss Mary E. Nowland, near Crumpton, on Tuesday, July 9th, in he 79th year. She had been confined to her room for 18 months during all of which time she had the faithful services of her daughter and kind care of friends. The funeral took place Thursday, interment in Chester cemetery; J. E. Ferguson undertaker. The following were the bearers: H. C. Stevens, J. W. Boggs, Wm. Faulkner, G. W. Woodall, Peter Brinsfield, Emory Smith.

Sarah, the 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stoops, died at Cliff City Sunday and the funeral took place Tuesday, interment in Chester cemetery; J. E. Ferguson undertaker.

MRS. ELLEN H. FORMAN.

Mrs. Ellen H. Forman died at the home of her neice Mrs. James McAllister 734 Light street, Baltimore, on Thursday last of tuberculosis aged 62 years; remains were brought to Kent on Friday by steamer Susquehanna and taken to the home of her neice, Mrs. W. A. Crew, at Betterton. Funeral services were held in the M. E. Church at Betterton on Saturday afternoon at four o'clock. Rev. Edw. H. Collins, of Still Pond, officiating; interment was in Still Pond cemetery; undertaker Wm. H. Krusen in charge.

MRS. ALFREDA JESTER.

Mrs. Alfreda Jester, wife of Mr. John Jester, died at her late home near Still Pond Creek on Wednesday morning at ten o'clock of convulsions aged 22 years. Funeral services were held in Double Creek M. E. Church, Queen Anne's Co., yesterday, Friday morning, at eleven o'clock. Interment was in the burial ground adjoining. Undertaker W. H. Krusen in charge.

LAST WEEK was not a good one in Hartford for foxes. Messrs. George Alban and John Krebs of the Sixth district became exasperated at the attacks of the "varmints" on their poultry yards and started a war of extermination. Within a radius of two and ahalf miles they found two dens and killed 28 foxes. There were two families in one of the dens, and the quantity of chicken feathers scattered about proved conclusively that the guilty parties had been caught.

THE Voshell House is well filled with guests including a bride and groom. Lambert's Riverside Hotel is also alive with summer boarders.

The Seventh Day Adventists have been holding a camp near Baltimore this week which was one of the most successful affairs in the history of the church. Rock Hall was well represented.

Live Local Notes.

Sale of Property.—J. W. Russell, real estate broker, has sold to Mr. John Redmile the farm near Kennedyville belonging to Rev. C. R. Blades and tenanted by Mr. Wiley Hodgson.

Once Was Enough.—A house-keeper in Chestertown tried for two weeks to get some chickens for a special occasion but in vain and finally as a last resort decided to try the NEWS. Monday morning to us came word, "Please don't advertise for chickens anymore. Once was enough to get me enough to stock a farm."

Trial Trip.—Capt. S. G. Bennett made a trial trip in Mr. W. E. Moody's new canoe one day this week and her owner was very much pleased. This boat is equipped with a 7 horse-power Ferro engine. The trip from Quaker Neck wharf to Chestertown was made in 55 minutes. Capt. G. B. Westcott has launched his sail boat and it makes quite an addition to the fleet here.

Shocked.—Capt. Sam Fowler, of the schooner Jessie Irving, while at Crane's wharf Monday was stunned by lightning. Captain Fowler was up the mast when a bolt struck it. He retained his presence of mind, grasped the halyards and slid to the deck in quick order. Upon reaching the deck he collapsed but was revived soon after reaching his home. He has completely recovered at this writing.

Camp.—A ten days Pentecostal Camp-meeting will be held in Klinefelter's Grove, beginning August 9th and lasting ten days, in charge of J. W. Lee, of Ind. G. Q. Hammell, of N. J. and Miss Etta H. Gibson, of Tilghman's, Md. This camp will be held for the salvation of the unsaved and the Sanctification and Edification of God's people. Of every name for tents or other information address W. F. Higgins, Millington, Md., or Ivanhoe Willis, Chestertown, Md.

Mine of Beer.—An officer of Kent county thought he had corralled a "mine of beer" in the woods near Tolchester last week but reports a failure to catch the proprietor. A dispenser of liquors had dug a pit in which was stored a large quantity of beer on ice preparatory to a big day on July 4th. During the night of July 3rd thirsty individuals discovered the "pit" and made way with the rich find. The proprietor was on hand early the next morning and was surprised to find all his stock had been stolen!

New Insurance Co.—Mr. Philip Burnet, of Wilmington, was the guest of Mr. W. W. Hubbard in Chestertown recently and explained to a number of business men the policy and plans of the new Continental Life Insurance Co. The capital authorized is $1,000,000, the amount with which the company starts, already paid in, being $100,000. The home office of the company will be in Wilmington, Del., and the first fields of operation will be Delaware, Maryland and Pennsylvania. The following officers and directors have been chosen: President, Philip Burnet, Wilmington; vice-president, Harvey L. Cooper, Denton; second vice-president, George E. Saulsbury, Denton; treasurer, L. L. Dirickson, Jr., Berlin; medical director, Dr. P. W. Tomlinson, Wilmington; directors, Dr. Hiram R. Burton, Lewes; James E. Ellegood, Salisbury; Dr. Charles M. Ellis, Elkton; Wilbur W. Hubbard, Chestertown; Joshua W. Miles, Princess Anne; John S. Mullin, Jr., Wilmington.; DeCourcy W. Thom, Queenstown, and George W. Woolford, Cambridge. Among the Chestertown stock holders are Col. Wm. J. Vannort, Allan A. Harris, W. B. Copper, J. H. Sides and others.

Crabs Stop Steamer.—Captain Buck, of the German steamship Brewster, in New York Tuesday from the West Indies, related that a crab had stopped the vessel for 12 hours on July 6. The ship had been making a fine run of it up from Jamaica with a cargo of bananas when, at noon on July 6, there came a crash in the engine room. The engineers did not know what was the trouble until one of them discovered a crab in the bearings. It was a hardshell crab, too, for it crushed and worked its nippers outside the machinery on anything that was presented for a bite. The engineers worked a long while at the machinery and the ship was hove to for 12 hours before they finally got the crab out. One of the crew ate it afterward. "If you want to picture it now," the Captain said, "you'll have to take an X-ray of the bo'sun's mate."

THE fishing sport down the river has begun. Some fine rock were caught this week by Mayor Stratton, Capt. Jas. Byron, Mr. H. W. Brice, Hiram Taylor and others. It is said that the gasoline boats have greatly interferred with fishing off Chester bridge. Messrs. Jarman & Wright are headquarters for shrimp.

THE circulation manager of the Baltimore Sun was in town this week and says the Sunday Sun will be delivered Sunday noon during the summer.

SPOT wheat was quoted at 91 cents in Baltimore yesterday.

SHERIFF MEDDERS arrested five crap shooters on Cross street yesterday morning—two white and three colored.

Heavy Storms.—The storm which broke over Kent county Monday afternoon varied in its severity. Capt. Eben Crew, of Betterton, says that he never experienced a storm in which the wind blew heavier nor the rain descended in such volume as it did at Betterton. The damage, however, to crops and shipping was not serious.

Near Church Hill hail cut the corn into shreds and the wind laid low a number of peach orchards and large oaks. Geo. Benny lost his whole crop of peaches; Milton Hunter's orchard was completely ruined and the limbs piled up like cord wood; Tom Robinson's big corn is in shreds and other farmers suffered likewise.

The lightning Thursday struck Mr. George Ayres' house in Rock Hall and knocked some of the plaster off. The house at Reese's Corner occupied by Mr. Collins and owned by Smith Bros. was struck and damaged to the extent of having the chimney destroyed and gable end knocked out.

DROWNED NEAR TOLCHESTER

Boat Loaded With Gravel Sinks With Two Men

While returning from the bay shore opposite Fairlee Farm, three miles below Tolchester, Thursday afternoon, two of the crew of the bugeye Vaughn were drowned. Under command of Captain Dove, of Annapolis, the bugeye nosed her way up the Fairlee creek in search of gravel. After loading a small boat, the two men manning it started for the bugeye. They had got about half way to the sloop when the boat filled and sank, drowning all on board. The names of the men drowned were Albert Milton and Ernest Wood.

Captain Ashley, who was at his fishing shore, some distance away from the scene of the drowning, was the first to hear of the accident. He immediately telephoned to Tolchester Beach and Annapolis, from where boats will be sent out to recover the bodies.

THE salaries of the rural mail carriers have been increased to $75 per month and the salaries of the railway agents to $1100 a year. The raise went into effect July 1st.
