My Dear Sir

Since I wrote you this A.M. your of yesterday has come to hand — & the copy will doubtless be at the Col. of. by tomorrow — and your "high behests" shall have my attention as soon as the awful North easter blows over —

I sent you to day Sixteen hundred & fifty dollars to pay Beach — & Beatty, — & any others who want their pay badly & before I return — I will endeavor to stop & settle up all my affairs in your city —

What is doing here? Why, not much of any thing as yet — I have seen Mr. Pinney only for a few minutes — & he was full of business & I learned nothing of their doings —

Yours respy

W. W. Seton
