IT'S UP TO YOU

Wouldn't you rather deal with a wise buyer than a shrewd seller? We have bought wisely. Our 1907 line of vehicles proves it. We can sell you a better buggy for less money than any one else. We say this without restriction or qualification. We are right here to demonstrate it. Compare our vehicles with anything offered by anyone, anywhere, any time.

Cortland Wagon Co. Vehicles

are the "Old, Original and Only" vehicles. They have been famous the world over for thirty-five years. They come nearer our idea of what high-grade vehicles should be than any line we know of. That is why we have selected them as our leaders in the high-grade line. You will be interested in looking them over. Come to us first or come to us last. We are sure that on a fair and square comparison you will come to us in the end. We make no extravagant claims—that's a catalogue house trick. We have no $75.00 buggies at $32.48. All we have to say is that we have an immense line, all new, all grades, all prices; that we can suit you in style, quality and price. That's what you are interested in. That's business. It's up to you.

Litigation in the Estate of Capt. Andrew Woodall.

Andrew W. Woodall, who is living at Georgetown, has filed a Bill in Equity against James E. Woodall, James F. M. Woodall and the other heirs of the late Captain Andrew Woodall through his attorneys, Messrs. Heuisler and Sauerwein, asking that certain deeds excuted by Captain Woodall in his life time shall be annulled and set aside.

The bill of complaint alleges that Captain Woodall was engaged in the mercantile business for a long time prior to his death at Georgetown, and employed the services of his son, James E. Woodall, and his son-in-law, James F. M. Woodall; that in the conduct of the business Captain Woodall was necessarily brought into daily contact with James E. Woodall and James F. M. Woodall, who in course of time came to exercise an unusual and extraordinary influence and domination over the will of the said Captain Andrew Woodall, and to control in a large measure his actions and conduct, that for a number of years prior to his death, Capt. Woodall was weak in body and mind and physically and mentally incompetent of caring for his ordinary business interests, or executing a valid deed or contract, or of knowing the natural objects of his bounty, or of providing in an intelligent manner therefor, and while in this weak and impaired mental and physical condition, and while he was under the domination and control of the said James E. Woodall and James F. M. Woodall, that the latter did, without the knowledge and direction of Capt. Andrew Woodall, take from the custody and possession and control of the said Captain Woodall a deed which had been made by him in 1898 conveying to James E. Woodall "Colchester Farm" adjoining the village of Georgetown, containing 544 acres and then and there delivered the same to James E. Woodall, that no valuable consideration passed from the said James E. Woodall to the said Captain Andrew Woodall for the said deed and that same was procured by the fraud and undue influence of the said James E. Woodall and James F. M. Woodall which they exercised and exerted over the mind and will of the said Capt. Woodall.

The bill asks the court to declare the deed for "Colchester Farm" null and void, and to require James E. Woodall to account for all income and profits since the farm came to his possession. The bill of complaint was duly sworn to by Andrew W. Woodall and filed in the circuit court for Kent county on July 3rd last.

Death of John E. Dority of Coleman's.

Mr. John E. Dority, who departed this life on the eve of June 29th was in his fifty ninth year of age. He has been for many years one of the most prominent men of Kent county. He has resided near Still Pond for many years, and leaves a host of friends who mourn to be parted from such a true friend. The funeral was preached by Rev. E. H. Collins, who talked so beautifully of this loved one being ready to meet his Redeemer. As a husband, father and friend he was loving, devoted and loyal to a remarkable degree; and those who have experienced the genial hospitality of his home, will not readily forget the hearty welcome that all received alike, whether friend of years or the stranger within his home. "With a hand and heart" ever open to melting charity, he will be sadly missed by all in his community. To those sad ones of his household, he will leave a host of tender recollections, that will hallow and sanctify his memory, and to those bereaved ones all sympathies must turn especially to the devoted wife whose loving care, ministered so sweetly to his declining years. May our Heavenly Father who has taken this loved one from the wife and loving daughter, console them in his own good time, and bring to their sad hearts, "The peace that passeth all understanding." Everything was done that could possibly be done to nurse him back to health. He knew he must die and advised his wife what he wished her to do. Yet he desired so much to get well for her sake. But said it was with the Lord what he saw fit, that all his faith and trust was in the Saviour. Mr. Dority is gone, but he has left a heritage that wil live forever—the heritage of an earnest, devoted wife.

God's fingers touched him and he slept.

In heaven no pain shall enter.
There no death shall ever be.
But where all is life and beauty,
Thro the great eternity;
Where the friends we loved are waiting.
And a welcome we may share.
When we reach the shining portal
We shall see our loved ones there.

HICK'S PREDICTIONS

"The fourth storm period, regular, is central on the 20th, covering the 18th to the 23d. We fear that the rainfall at this and other central and late July storm periods will be scattering and light. Very black and blustering storm clouds will almost certainly appear at the culmination of storm periods, and phenomenal 'water spouts' may occur here and there; but the general rainfall will be far below the actual needs of the season. The 20th to 22d will be culminating storm days, following which look for rising barometer and change to some cooler.

"The fifth storm period, reactionary, is central on the 24th and 26th. Within forty-eight hours of sunset on the 24th many storms and marked seismic disturbances will be heard from in many parts of the earth, so that a maximum of such phenomena may be noted. The temperature will fall after these storms.

"The sixth storm period, regular, falls within a Mercury period. It is central on the 31st and extends from the 29th, two days into August. Change to much warmer and gathering thunder storms will begin in the West by the 29th and during the four days following these conditions will pass eastwardly across the country."

Verdict for Dr. Pierce

AGAINST THE

Ladies' Home Journal.

Sending truth after a lie. It is an old maxim that "a lie will travel seven leagues while truth is getting its boots on," and no doubt hundreds of thousands of good people read the unwarranted and malicious attack upon Dr. R. V. Pierce and his "Favorite Prescription" published in the May (1904) number of the Ladies' Home Journal, with its great black display headings, who never saw the humble, groveling retraction, with its inconspicuous heading, published two months later. It was boldly charged in the slanderous and libelous article that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for the cure of woman's weaknesses and ailments, contained alcohol and other harmful ingredients. Dr. Pierce promptly brought suit against the publishers of the Ladies' Home Journal, for $200,000.00 damages.

Dr. Pierce alleged that Mr. Bok, the editor, maliciously published the article containing such false and defamatory matter with the intent of injuring his business; furthermore, that no alcohol, or other injurious, or habit-forming, drugs are, or ever were, contained in his "Favorite Prescription"; that said medicine is made from native medicinal roots and contains no harmful ingredients whatever, and that Mr. Bok's malicious statements were wholly and absolutely false.

In the retraction printed by said Journal they were forced to acknowledge that they had obtained analyses of "Favorite Prescription," from eminent chemists, all of whom certified that it did not contain alcohol or any of the alleged harmful drugs!

These facts were also proven in the trial of the action in the Supreme Court. But the business of Dr. Pierce was greatly injured by the publication of the libelous article with its great display headings, while hundreds of thousands who read the wickedly defamatory article never saw the humble groveling retraction, set in small type and made as inconspicuous as possible. The matter was, however brought before a jury in the Supreme Court of New York State which promptly rendered a verdict in the Doctor's favor. Thus his traducers came to grief and their base slanders were refuted.

Schnapps Tobacco is Made ENTIRELY from Flue Cured Tobacco Grown in the Piedmont Country. The Imitation Brands Have Schnapps Quality Only On the Outside Of the Plug

Hundreds of imitation brands are on sale that look like Schnapps tobacco. The outside of the imitation plugs of tobacco is flue cured the same as Schnapps, but the inside is filled with cheap, flimsy, heavily sweetened air cured tobacco. One chew of Schnapps will satisfy tobacco hunger longer than two chews of such tobacco. The color, size and shape of the tags, plugs and packages of certain imitation brands of tobacco have been made so much like Schnapps that they have often been accepted by buyers under the belief that they were getting Schnapps. Sufficient proof has been secured to establish the fact that certain brands are infringements and in violation of the trade mark laws, yet the trade will continue to be imposed upon by these infringers until the suit already entered and now pending to protect Schnapps is decided. A great many of these imitations are claimed to be "just as good" as Schnapps, but there is only one genuine Schnapps. Be sure the letters on the tag, and stamped on the plug under the tag spell S-C-H-N-A-P-P-S and then you have it—the most wholesome tobacco produced, with just enough sweetening to preserve the mild, juicy, stimulating quality of the leaf tobacco. Expert tests prove that this flue cured tobacco, grown in the famous Piedmont region, requires and takes less sweetening than any other and has a wholesome, stimulating, satisfying effect on chewers.

If the tobacco you are chewing don't satisfy you more than the mere habit of expectorating, stop fooling yourself and chew Schnapps tobacco. Schnapps is like the tobacco chewers formerly bought costing from 75c. to $1.00 per pound; Schnapps is sold at 50c. per pound, in 5c. cuts, strictly 10c. and 15c. plugs.
