SATURDAY, JULY 20, 1907.

DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES.

In accordance with the action of the Democratic State Central Committee, the Democratic voters of Kent county will meet in their respective Election Districts and Precincts, at the usual places for holding primary elections on Saturday, July 27th, 1907, between the hours of two and six o'clock p. m. for the purpose of appointing six delegates from each district to meet in Chestertown, Maryland, on Tuesday, July 30th, 1907, at 11 o'clock a. m., to elect delegates to the Democratic State Convention to be held in Baltimore, Maryland, on the 8th day of August, 1907, for the purpose of nominating candidates for Governor, Comptroller of the Treasury, Attorney General and Clerk of the Court of Appeals. And also, to elect delegates to the Democratic Judicial Convention to be held in Centreville, Maryland, on the 15th day of August, 1907, for the purpose of nominating two candidates for Associate Justices of the Second Judicial Circuit of Maryland.

If there be any contest for the election of delegates and a desire is expressed for a vote, each district shall have judges and clerks and shall open and close the polls at the hours herein prescribed, and when polls are opened, shall receive the votes of all Democrats offering to vote, whose names shall appear upon the registration books and who shall vote in the districts where they are registered, and shall also receive all the votes of all young Democrats, who, on account of their age are not now registered but who will be entitled to registration and to vote at the ensuing November Election. And, upon the closing of the polls at the hours herein directed the judges shall proceed to count the votes cast, and shall certify to the person receiving the highest number of votes as delegates. Whereupon it shall be the duty of said delegates to proceed to Chestertown on said Tuesday in July and cast the vote of the district in convention and elect delegates as aforesaid to this convention.

Should no desire be expressed for a ballot, then the district meetings may select delegates by a viva voce vote, or by committee nominations. The mode of procedure herein prescribed must be strictly followed, any other method will not be legal.

The following are the Judges for the primaries:

First Precinct, First District—Geo. W. Jones, Wm. H. Loper, J. B. Stevens, Jr.

A COMMENDABLE SPIRIT.

One of the most beautiful things in the world is a kind act, as shown in the incident here related. It was our pleasure to witness an exceptionally spontaneous contribution from the citizens of Chestertown towards the relief of one of our industrious young boys who was bitten by a rabid dog and was sent to the Pasteur Institute. This treatment costs $150 and comes very heavy on the average man. Messrs. Thos. Dixon and Wm. MacPatrick started out to collect this sum and met with a hearty response. Men in every walk of life contributed to the need of their fellowman and thus put into practice the unselfish spirit that is both noble and commendable.

WHERE'S THE GAIN?

The anti-organization Democrats in Kent are making a special effort now to change the State Central Committee, and they will muster their forces at the polls next Saturday to accomplish this result. Nothing but factional motives can influence such an effort and no good will come out of it. Why should the committee be changed? Is H. W. Vickers, Jr., a better man for chairman than Lewin W. Wickes? Or can Mr. Al Turner in Worton do better service for the party than James W. Ivens? And why supplant John C. Redmile in the second district with Mr. Comegys or with Mr. Hudson in the sixth? Every Democrat in the county interested in his party, and especially in the success of the nominated ticket, should see to it that the present committee is retained, and this can only be done by attending the primaries next Saturday and voting for organization delegates to the State convention.

FARMING NOTES.

Mr. J. Raymond Bowers has rented the Walker farm tenanted by Mr. R. C. Morgan. Mr. J. Thomas Blackiston will tenant the Vickers farm in Quaker Neck.

Mr. John W. Atwell will remove from the Penn Norris farm owned by J. D. Urie, Esq., to the Parsons farm occupied by Mr. Newcomb. Mr. Urie advertises his farm at private sale.

Mr. Elias Othoson has rented the Dr. J. W. Urie farm near Still Pond.

Mr. C. H. Kennedy has rented Mr. James Brice's Wilmer farm near Morgnec.

Mr. Wm. H. Minner has decided to quit farming.

Wheat threshing has been very much hindered by the constant showers.

Mr. Joseph Atwell, on Col. Vannort's Flatland farm, threshed out 33 bushels to the acre on one field, his whole crop averaging 22 bushels. He sold to Crouch & Clements for 83 cents and got his check promptly.

Mr. Jere Miller got 20 bushels to the acre.

Mr. H. P. Skipper got 32 bushels per acre off one field but has not finished threshing his whole crop yet.

It is a matter of note that on Monday while one farmer near town was threshing wheat, his neighbor was just finishing cutting and the wheat was not too ripe by any means.

Mr. W. T. Smith, of Smithville, got 27 bushels of wheat to the acre.

Mr. Hyland P. Smith is reported to have gotten 17 bushels per acre, and Mr. Benton, on Col. Vannort's farm, about the same.

Political Notes.

Col. Spencer C. Jones has published a card withdrawing as a candidate for Governor on the Democratic ticket and the Evening News says that his county is likely to vote for Baker. There are some people in Kent, however, who predict his nomination whether he gets out or stays in, especially since Mr. Will Wallis is a candidate for State Convention! Such bosh has caused ridicule wherever read.

"We are opposed to the Republicans nominating only two candidates for County Commissioners," is the edict of the anti-organization organ. Why not also take charge of the Prohibition party?

Delegates will be named next Saturday, July 27th, in all the districts of Kent County to meet in Convention in Chestertown for the purpose of selecting delegates to the Democratic State Convention in Baltimore and to the Judicial Convention in Centreville. Delegations have been named in the different districts and an active canvas is being made for their election. Neither side are advocating any special candidate for Governor as far as we can learn. The present State Central Committee are Lewin W. Wickes, Esq., James W. Ivens and John C. Redmile, each of whom has served his party faithfully and well. They deserve the approbation of every voter in the county.

It is intimated by some well-known persons that money will be used in the contest next Saturday. It will therefore be an excellent opportunity for the advocates of anti-bribery to put into quick action their principles.

All persons interested in this matter are advised to attend the primaries next Saturday and to vote against the party or parties using money.

The Conference called to meet in Baltimore next Tuesday does not meet with the approval of the people either in Kent or elsewhere. It can do no good and may do a great deal of injury to the Democratic cause. The State Convention is the place to name the candidate for Governor.

WHY TURN THEM OUT?

It is said that the anti-organization faction of the Kent Democracy have determined to turn out the present State Central Committee for the county and elect a new committee. To this end movements are on foot in all the districts.

There is no good reason for any such action. The present committee is one of the best we have had in the county. They are in hearty accord with the ticket nominated and will leave nothing undone to secure the election of every candidate. Why then should they be substituted by new and possibly untried men?

The right-thinking, fair-minded democrats of the county will not permit such action, we are sure, if they will but give it a moment's thought. Yet such a result may be brought about by indifference or an over sanguine feeling on the part of the friends of the present committee. Let this not be. But see to it that the voters attend the meeting NEXT SATURDAY and elect a full delegation from each district in their favor.

In loving remembrance of my friend Fredia Toulson Jester who departed this life July 10, 1907, age 22 years.

Gone in her young womanhood
Blighted in life's early bloom
Torn from the hearts that loved her
To sleep in the silent tomb.
But as she lies in peaceful sleep
Her sacred memory we shall keep.

The midnight stars are beaming
Upon a silent grave,
Where sleepeth without dreaming
The one we could not save.

One by one earths ties are broken,
As we see our love decay,
And the hopes so fondly cherished
Brightened but to pass away.

One by one our hopes grow brighter
As we near the shining shore
For we know across the river
Wait the loved ones gone before.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County in Equity. No. 1623.

Clarence Brown,
vs.
Kate Brown, John Brown, Hattie Brown, Alfred Brown, Thomas Brown of Horace Brown, Jr., Ella Brown, Alice Wally, Nelie Brown, Thomas Brown, of Henry, Vincent Brown, all adults, and the infants, Mary Wilson, Daisy Wilson, Bertie Wilson, Oliver Wilson, George Wilson, Bulah Wilson.

The object of this bill is to procure a decree for the sale of the Leasehold interest of which Horace Brown, late of Kent county, deceased possessed at the time of his death in a small lot of land located on the west side of Washington Avenue, in Chestertown, Kent County, Maryland, and to distribute the proceeds among those thereto entitled, being the above entitled parties who are the only heirs at law of the said Horace Brown who died intestate.—

The bill states that the leasehold interest in said property is not susceptible of division without material loss and injury among the parties thereto entitled, and in order to make a division of said property a sale of the same as prayed is necessary—

That all said parties are residents of Kent County, Maryland, except the following: John Brown, Hattie Brown, Alfred Brown, and Thos. Brown of Horace Brown, Jr., who are none-residents of this state and reside at Wilmington state of Delaware, Vincent Brown who is a non-resident of the State of Maryland and is a resident of the State of Pennsylvania, and Ella Brown whose residence is unknown but is believed to be a non-resident of the State of Maryland, nor is it known if she be living or dead, and if dead whether she left descendents surviving her—

To the end therefore that a decree may be passed as prayed—

It is therefore ordered this 27th day of June A. D., 1907—by the Circuit Court for Kent county, State of Maryland, in Equity that the Plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper, published in Kent county, aforesaid, once in each of four successive weeks before the 29th day of July, A. D. 1907—giving notice to John Brown, Hattie Brown, Alfred Brown, Thomas Brown of Horace Brown, Jr., residents of the State of Delaware, Vincent Brown, resident of the State of Pennsylvania, and Ella Brown whose residence is unknown but supposed to be a non-resident of the State of Maryland, or if the said Ella be dead then to the descendants of the said Ella, or her unknown heirs at law, of the object and substance of this bill and warning them to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor on or before the 17th day of August A. D. 1907 to show cause if any they have why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

Is a sensible, a safe, a wise investment — purchasing the cheap kind is a waste. Putting a reasonable amount into a really good ring, for instance, is as wise as spending it for new clothing.
