Mr Barton

Dear Sir

Your package of letters were duly received last night, & I lose no time in replying. I send Wittington & Hastings & on Eastman Fellows & Co of Boston in my favour at 60 days for $1534.75. This I wish you to get stamped & entered in my book at Mr Bank for collection. At the same time give Mr Mott the enclosed letter or note. Mr Mott is hard & strike there & acts for Mr Mills bills. I think of nothing more necessary to write & I write only what is necessary as my copying paper works so badly. I am in trouble with little letter there when I left. Kite & wife, got a child. If postage stamps do use up the 10$ but me know it & I will send more on a small chk.

Very respectfully & truly yours

Thos Mills

Tell Eastman & Co I will send them a check for 1500.
