PERSONAL TIDINGS

The Coming and Going of Friends and Relatives—Kent is Filled With Summer Guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Joel R. Clements and Miss Sue Walton Dunbracco are spending ten days at Ocean Grove, N. J. It is here that not a team is allowed on the streets Sundays and where no liquors, cigars nor chewing gum are allowed to be sold. It is the great meeting place for the religious and an ideal place for a quiet rest.

Mr. Harvey Boggs, who has served as fireman on the Kent railroad for some years, has been granted an engineer's license, having passed a very creditable examination. He is to be congratulated for his efficiency.

Mr. J. Frank Bacon and wife and Miss Grace Fish, of Camden, N. J., are visiting Mr. Pere Rasin in Worton.

Miss Mary Elliott has entered A. L. Sparks' department store as saleslady and will be glad to see her many friends.

Mrs. Arthur Bevan and children, of Baltimore, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Hudson, "Flatlands."

Mr. and Mrs. James Brice, of Baltimore, and Miss Adelaide Watkins are guests at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. James Brice on Washington Avenue.

Misses Esther and Ella Cochran, of near Galena, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. William R. Crow, of Kennedyville.

Miss Barbara Anthony left Saturday morning for Philadelphia, and on Friday morning she and a party of friends will leave for Boston, Mass., by sea, and while there will visit Newport and Block Island returning by Fall River Line to New York,—from New York they will return to Philadelphia, and spend a week at Atlantic City.

Mr. Harry D. Anthony, of the Maryland Casualty Co., Baltimore, will spend the latter part of the month in Detroit as the guest of the Commercial Law League of America, which holds its annual convention in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Crouch, Miss Lula and Master Samuel Crouch, have been visiting Mr. John Townsend and other friends at Townsend, Del.

Mrs. Mary A. Hynson has returned from a pleasant visit to her daughter, Mrs. Carpenter, in New York, who has a beautiful home on Riverside Boulevard overlooking the Hudson River.

Mr. Frank A. Roeder and wife of Baltimore, are spending several days in Kent. Mr. Roeder is one of the popular salesmen of the well-known Baltimore clothing house of Likes, Berwanger & Co., and has an extensive trade among Eastern Shoremen.

Miss Mamie Rayner, of Baltimore, is visiting her grandparents, Col. and Mrs. W. J. Vannort, in Chestertown.

Miss Lydia A. Golt, of Wilmington, Del., is the guest of her brother, Mr. Garrett Foxwell, near Black's Station.

Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Younger spent last week with their mother at Fairlee.

Mr. and Mrs. White are spending the week with their mother at Fairlee.

Mrs. Samuel Burgess and daughter, of Edesville, spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. J. Hydie Thompson.

The Misses Ranson, of Baltimore, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Hope H. Barroll, at Byford on the Chester.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brice held a family reunion at Tolchester on Thursday. There were present Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brice and daughter, from Philadelphia; Mr. James Brice, Jr., and family, Mr. William Brice and family, Mr. Watkins and family, Miss Ella Watkins, Mr. G. Hines Thomas and family, all of Baltimore. It was the first time that Mr. Brice had spent the day at the Beach for many years and there was a thunder storm!

Prof. S. Walter Sparks, wife and two children, of Baltimore, are guests of his parents on High street.

Miss Linda Morris, of near Fairlee, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. William Morris, on Queen street.

Mrs. R. D. Hynson and family have moved into Mrs. M. C. Ringgold's property on Front street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Glenn and children, of Baltimore, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Glenn, in Broad Neck.

Mrs. John E. Vickers and daughters, of Broad Neck, are visiting friends and relatives in Baltimore.

Messrs. C. M. Clay and W. H. Lambert are spending a part of the week in Philadelphia, at the Elks convention.

Misses Mary Watkins and Polly Polk, of Baltimore, are being entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Strong, near Lankford.

Mrs. S. L. Thomas and daughter, Miss Laura, are guests of Mrs. T's daughter, Mrs. J. A. Perkins, at Lansdowne, Pa.

Miss Julia Burchinal is spending sometime in the Adirondacks. She was accompanied by her sister Miss Mary C. Burchinal.

Mrs. M. V. Perkins and sons are spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hadaway in Broad Neck.

Mrs. D. D. Matteson, of Brockton, Mass., is the guest of Miss Nettie Russell, High street.

Mr. and Mrs. William Copper and son, Louis, of Baltimore, have been visiting at the home of the former's brother, Mr. Charles W. Copper.

Miss Clara Sappington is visiting friends at Lynch.

Miss Ollin Hudson, of Piney Neck, is visiting at the home of her uncle, Mr. W. J. Hudson, Mill street.

Misses Anna Smyth and Elizabeth Russell have been spending the past few days with relatives of the former at Still Pond.

Mr. James G. Beck has been quite sick for the past week, but is reported better at this writing.

Mrs. Carrow, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Smith.

Mrs. Chas. Brown and children, Mr. Thomas Sexton and daughters, of Baltimore have been visitlng Mrs. M. C. Stoops in Quaker Neck the past week.

Robert F. Duer, Esq., of the Princess Anne bar, was a visitor to Chestertown this week on business.

"Prof." White, janitor at Chestertown High School, and son, John, have enjoyed a week of sight-seeing in Washington, D. C., this week.

Mr. Edw. P. Jester's livery in Baltimore is at 1325 North Spring St. where he will be glad to see his friends.

Miss Anna Wroth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Wroth, is able to be out after being sick for several weeks.

Master Robert Edes Jewell, the 12-year-old son of Robert F. Jewell, formerly of Kent, proved a winner in the examinations held in the High School at St. Michaels. His average was over 98. Kent boys are always on top.

Misses Palmer Carroll and Ethel Bacchus are guests at a house party given by Miss Mary Gray in Caroline county.

Misses Adel France, Louise Stam and Hallie Westcott are guests of Mrs. Finley at a house party at her home on South East Creek in Queen Anne's county.

Miss Jennie Hines is the guest of Mrs. Rudolph Tull, near Philadelphia.

Dr. W. F. Hines met his son Charles, of St. Louis, Mo., in New York this week and with him took a short pleasure trip to the Great Lakes.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Booth, of West Chester, Pa., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Miller on Queen street.

Miss Mary A. Brown, of Chestertown, one of Kent's popular school teachers, is visiting her brother in Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

Mr. Jesse Hines, of Mexico, is visiting his brother, Dr. W. Frank Hines. This is Mr. Hines' first visit to Kent for 17 years.

Mrs. M. A. Glover, and son, Mr. Wm. E. Glover, of Baltimore, are guests of Miss G. A. Thumlert in Kent.

Miss Ethel Hines is visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. W. Blount, at Galena.

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH IT?

Lewin W. Wickes, James W. Ivens and John C. Redmile constitute the Democratic State Central Committee for Kent county. A better committee could not be selected. Yet, we are told that an effort will be made at the primaries NEXT SATURDAY to turn them out. Is there any reason for such action? We think not, and the votes are abundant and plenty to prevent it if the voters will turn out and rebuke the attempt.

CHURCH NOTES.

Rev. W. L. White, pastor of the Chestertown M. E. Church, has been granted a raise in salary from one thousand to $1100. All of Kent's pastors deserve a raise, and so do the pew holders.

Dr. F. T. Little is preaching a series of interesting sermons on Paul at Athens at the twilight services in Christ Church. He pictured last Sunday in a most striking manner the audience which confronted Paul at Athens.

Emmanuel Church Sunday school enjoyed their picnic to Love Point Wednesday and the M. E. school on Thursday.

A certain preacher in Kent was granted a vacation a few days ago and when notified of the favor replied, "Gentlemen, I appreciate your thoughtfulness in granting me a vacation, but I will have to remain at home because there was no provision made for me to get away!"

The reopening of Kesley Chapel will take place Sunday, July 21. There will be special service at 3 p. m. and 8 p. m. Public is cordially invited to be present. On account of the evening service at this appointment there will be no service at Wesley Chapel Sunday evening.

Death's Doings.

Robert Lawrence, the fourteen month old son of Mr. Robert J. and Lelia McWhorter, died about three o'clock Monday morning of broncho-pneumonia, following summer complaint. The little fellow was taken ill about three weeks ago with summer complaint and fought hard under the skillful care of Dr. H. G. Simpers and Saturday evening was thought to be out of all danger, but Sunday evening broncho-pneumonia developed and all hopes for his recovery was dispaired of and death claimed him Monday morning. Funeral was held Tuesday afternoon, interment in Chester cemetery. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of funeral, and the pall bearers were Masters Frank, Gilbert and Carey Jarman, and Clayton Wright.

Vachel Burgess Hines died near Rock Hall on Sunday last. He was 81 years of age and leaves two children, Mr. Wm. I. Hines, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Hopkins Burgess of Kent. The funeral took place on Wednesday, interment at St. Paul's, Rev. G. S. Gray officiating. The bearers were Dr. T. B. Willson, Dr. Frank B. Hines, Geo. Beck, B. F. Beck, Sam'l Burgess, all of Kent, and Mr. Conrad, of Baltimore. J. N. Dodd conducted the funeral. Mr. Hines was a well-known citizen of Kent and for many years held a responsible position in the Baltimore Custom house.

My Hair is Extra Long

Feed your hair; nourish it; give it something to live on. Then it will stop falling, and will grow long and heavy. Ayer's Hair Vigor is the only genuine hair-food you can buy. It gives new life to the hair-bulbs. You save what hair you have, and get more, too. And it keeps the scalp clean and healthy.
