THEIR INSINCERITY EXPOSED!

Organization Leaders Propose to Use No Money To-day and anti-Organization Seek Subterfuge and Refuse to Enter Agreement.

THE "splendid fight which the organ of the organization has been making since the primaries against the use of money in such contests" has been the cause of congratulation from even our enemies. And judging from the loud sounding warning from the anti-organization organ we thought the task accomplished of keeping to-day's primaries free from bribery. But they refuse up to this time to sign or agree not to use money, and their words rebound upon them with double force, viz.:

"The people of the county feel that their contest is all a sham and their stand for morality and purity in politics is more for show than sincerity."

The organization has made the proposition and the anti-organization people refuse. Enough said.

FARMING NOTES.

Mr. J. Leonard Price, near Still Pond, got an average of 25 bushels per acre and his brother, Mr. John F. Price, got 22 bushels per acre.

Mr. James W. Lambert got 29 bushels per acre off of his fallow field.

A gentleman in riding from Worton to Stilll Pond says he saw nine threshing rigs at work.

Mr. Thomas Faulkner received 27 head of young cattle Tuesday evening from Baltimore to turn out on grass.

Mr. George Hendrickson finished threshing Tuesday and got 26 bushels per acre on 100 acres.

Mr. Chas. Hurd's thresher was seriously damaged Thursday by a pitch-fork running through it while at work at Mr. Samuel Mann's.

DROWNED HER BABY.

A Colored Resident of Chestertown Gets Rid of Three Months Old Boy—Held for Action of Grand Jury.

Persons driving along the front of State's Attorney W. W. Beck's home on Chester river Sunday morning discovered a three-months old colored infant on the shore. The authorities were notified and an inquest held in charge of Coroner Moffett and Foreman D. B. McMenamin. Sheriff Medders got to work on the case and soon had Mary Pritchard in jail charged with the crime. The jury of inquest held Mary Pritchard and Judge Hicks committed her to jail to await action of the Grand Jury. This woman testified that her baby had been sick, finally died and not knowing what to do with it, took the child to the river and disposed of it. Neighbors state that the child was heard crying as late as midnight Saturday.

Seriously Hurt.—An employe of Mr. John Hogans, Buck Neck, was seriously injured Wednesday afternoon. He was driving a loaded wagon and in attempting to catch a bag of wheat lost his balance, fell off the wagon, and was seriously hurt. Dr. F. W. Smith accompanied the patient to the Baltimore Hospital.

Mid-Summer Selling!

This is the season for big bargains and the trade can rightly look for and expect extra values from active dealers at this time.

It pays to look after the many bargains we are offerings each week and we are glad to see the trade appreciate the value. Look up our adv't on page 5.

Live Local Notes.

LOCAL buyers were paying 88 cents for wheat yesterday.

THURSDAY was the hottest day of the summer. The mercury registered 94° at 11 A. M. and 88° at 6 P. M.

THE town commissioners are to be congratulated for the big improvement on Cannon street, between Mill and Cross. Mr. Bordley says if they had the money they'd do great things for Chestertown.

IN another column will be found the advertisement of the Maryland Agricultural College an institution worthy the support of the agricultural community especially. Each year finds the college improved in every particular and the coming year will be no exception.

THE Bertie E. Tull Co. is progressive in many ways. They have just had completed a large warehouse on Buck Neck wharf by contractor A. M. Kendall, Fairlee. All the outside work is of sheet iron, the frame work alone being of wood. The new building will be a great convenience in their extensive freighting business.

Married.—Capt. Jack Scoone, the Rock Hall hackman, has opened a matrimonial agency. He brought Miss Lillie Hayden and Mr. George F. Briggerman, of Baltimore, from Tolchester here Tuesday and Dr. F. T. Little married them. They state that Mr. Scoone certainly knows how to manage these affairs.

School Notes.—Prof. J. Thomas Kendall, of Fairlee, principal of the Queenstown School, Queen Anne's county, Md., the last scholastic year, has been appointed principal of the Church Hill school, in the same county, and he has accepted the appointment for the reason of a material increase in salary.

Announcement.—Mr. and Mrs. William Copper, of Lynch, announce the marriage of their daughter, Lottie Olivia, to Mr. James Guy Parker, of Philadelphia, to take place at Lynch M. P. Church, on Tuesday, August 6th at 12 o'clock.

Sale of Property.—J. D. Urie, Esq., attorney, has sold to Jacob Micholski, of Rock Hall, the Sewell home in that town for $675.

J. Waters Russell reports following sales of property: J. B. Sappington's house and lot on Kent street to Miss M. D. Kemp. W. T. Clark's 10 acre property near Lynch, to W. I. Robinson. Price $600.

Chicken Thieves.—Rev. W. J. Morris, pastor of St. James M. P. Church, proved that he was a good shot with a gun a few days ago. He walked out into his poultry yard and found four fine fowls dead; at the same time saw the weeds shaken as if by some animal. He took aim and fired a load of "goose" shot and killed a big fat weasel!

William Blake, colored, of Broad Neck, had been missing eggs from under some of his setting hens and was on the lookout for the thief when one morning last week upon going into his hennery he discovered a large black snake in the act of stealing and he at once killed the crawling thief which measured seven feet, six inches and upon opening him found eight duck eggs.

Tomato Outlook.—Mr. Samuel Vannort failed to get a ripe tomato from his garden in Chestertown on July 4th, and so did other "early birds." The crop is about two weeks late this year.

Seventy-five per cent. of the canners of tomatoes in Maryland, Delaware and New Jersey were represented Thursday at the semi-annual meeting of the Tri-State Packers' Association, at Wilmington, Del.

Reports showed that the acreages in tomatoes in Maryland and Delaware this year is from 15 to 25 per cent. greater than last year. In New Jersey the acreage is about normal. The greatest increase is in Maryland.

If the weather conditions continue favorable the yield will be satisfactory. The packers are also hopeful that frosts will not occur until late in fall, thus continuing the tomato crop until early in October at least. The acreage in corn this year in the three States is below the normal.

Child Killed By a Horse.—The 18-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Porter, of near Centreville, was killed by a horse Tuesday. The child was playing in the yard, where a horse had been turned loose to graze. It is supposed that it passed too near the animal's heels and was kicked on the head and breast. The child was dead when found.

While playing with a blank cartridge Raymond Hollis, colored, of Centreville, had his left hand almost blown off by the explosion of the cartridge. He attempted to pick the paper from the shell with a pin.

DON'T forget the Excursion on next Wednesday to Annapolis.

Death's Doings.

After months of suffering and pain the spirit of Mrs. Sallie C. Jones, of Lynch, was called hence Wednesday afternoon. The deceased was fifty-five years old and was the daughter of the late Robert H. Rouse and wife of Mr. J. C. Jones. She was a faithful member of Lynch M. P. Church and always took an active interest in its success. Mrs. Jones was a kind and sympathetic woman and loved to entertain her friends. Her home was her kingdom. She was a good business woman, industrious and careful and took pride in her accomplishments. She leaves a husband and five children, viz., Mrs. Clara Louise Williams, Robert, Daisy, Charley and Annie. The funeral will take place this Saturday at 9 A. M., interment in Chester cemetery. The bearers will be Messrs. Frank Rouse Harry Williams, Harry and Carvel Casey, Sam'l Mann and Elmer Jones.

MRS. WALTER R. WOODALL.

Mrs. Susan Woodall, wife of Walter R. Woodall, of Fredericktown, died of tuberculosis at seven o'clock Saturday morning at Morton, Pa., where she had been taken in hopes of benefiting her health. She was the only daughter of Capt. Andrew J. Schofield. She was twenty-three years of age and is survived by her husband and two small children. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon; with interment at Westminster Cemetery, Georgetown.

MRS. RACHEL MERRITT.

Mrs. Rachel Merritt, widow of the late Joseph Merritt, died last Wednesday at her home at Warwick, after a lingering illness. She was eighty-eight years of age, and is survived by four children—James S. Merritt, of Golts; R. B. Merritt, of Warwick; Mrs. John P. Willson, of Cecilton, and Mrs. Joseph Delaney, of Baltimore.

JAMES HERBERT MASLIN.

James Herbert Maslin, youngest son of Wm. and Margaret Maslin, died at six o'clock Tuesday morning, July 16th, at the residence of his parents, Massey, Md. His sudden death was not only a shock to his family, but to the community at large. He was sick only two days, the immediate cause of his death being Peritonitis. The deceased was born at Massey, Md., November 5th, 1887, and had a large circle of friends, by whom he was generally beloved on account of his kind disposition and gentle ways. He was a young man of most estimable character and a thoughtful, affectionate and dutiful son. His funeral took place Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, services being conducted by Rev. Mr. McSorley, of Townsend, Del. The interment was made in St. Clement's cemetery, Massey, Md. His funeral was largely attended, and the floral offerings were both numerous and handsome and testified to the high esteem in which the young man was held. The bereaved parents and family have our deepest and most heartfelt sympathy in their sore affliction.

The Early Closing Movement.

The ladies of the Town Improvement Society met in special session Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. W. J. Vannort. The object of the meeting was to aid the clerks in their efforts to get relief during the hot season by having all the stores in Chestertown close at 7 P. M. In justice to the association we would state that they do not desire nor do they intend to interfere or meddle with anyone's business but simply take the step on behalf of the clerks.

It is a question whether the closing of the stores will not be an inconvenience to the country people, especially during the busy season. The farmers themselves are employed during the day and the housewives, even if they could get away, have to wait until night to get a horse. The merchants are the best judges of this and to their judgement we leave the matter. If any merchant releases his clerks for the evening and chooses to remain himself we do not think the public should censure him.

The town people, with but few exceptions, can do their shopping during the day and thereby relieve the clerks from returning after 7 P. M. and by bringing about this practice the Improvement Society can help the clerks without injury to the town or its merchants.

The NEWS received yesterday at 11 A. M. a long list of names secured by the Improvement Society of Chestertown residents who promise not to do any shopping during August after 7 P. M. These names were received too late for this issue but will appear next week.

THE vacancy in the auditing committee for Kent county caused by the resignation of Mr. Harry C. Willis has been filled by the appointment of Mr. Philip G. Wilmer. This is a wise choice.

New Building.—Mr. Frank Duyer has contracted with Dr. James E. Graham for the erection of a residence on Water street, Chestertown, on the lot recently purchased adjoining the homes of Messrs. Carroll and Wheatly. Building operations will begin by Sept. 1st, in order to move in by last of the year.

MR. J. FRANK JARRELL has just had erected a large new granary, modern in every detail, on his farm recently purchased of Mr. Purnell Jump near Fairlee. Mr. A. M. Kenkall, Fairlee, was the builder.
