BEWARE OF STRIPES.

Animals That Wear Them Are Said to Be Treacherous.

"Show me a striped wild animal, and I will show you one you want to keep your eye on," said the circus man. "I have had to do with wild animals now for a good many years—I won't tell you how many because I am getting old enough to feel the weight of these time posts—and I have never yet come up with a striped beast that did not show mean traits.

"Sometimes I wonder if this is not the way nature has of marking up the bad fellows so that they may be known, just as we put striped suits on the impossibly bad of the human kind. Take hyenas, for instance. They come under the head of a dog species. How seldom you ever hear of a dog snipping the hand that feeds it! These ugly things are liable to do it any time.

"Zebras are pudgy little horses with stripes that give away their temperament. Every now and then you hear of zebras broken to harness. Well, I have seen a few of these, but they didn't go far before something else was broken besides the zebra's mean nature. They are strong and good looking, but so infernally cussed that there is no doing anything with them.

"Sometimes a lion's mane is marked with uneven black circles. When this is the case, it is wise not to get too familiar. It is the sign of a bad streak somewhere in Leo's makeup, and there is no telling when this strain might turn his strength into savage danger.

"The elephant is good natured and obedient. The camel takes life easily and doesn't seem to worry about anything so long as he is left to munch by himself. A bear with a fur of several shadings is a bad one to take risks with.

"The tapir is a harmless beast and rather affectionate. He can even cry. Big rolling teardrops show this when his keeper cuts him out of a meal or goes away for a day or two. The llama is an animal sort that may be properly classed with the spotted animals. Brown and white and black and white in huge splashes lend to the good looks of its curling coat. It has big lamblike eyes and would run from a baby."—Boston Globe.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

There are a good many rabbits playing lion parts.

If you let others do your bragging for you, it isn't so apt to be overdone.

When authority spoils a man it is also apt to be hard on those over whom it extends.

Careful comparison makes any other heritage look insignificant compare with common sense.

You often hear impolite children criticised. Ever realize that there are a good many impolite grown people?

Some houses are so prim and orderly they remind one of the systematic arrangement of the tombstones in a well kept graveyard.

If you want to know how people speak of you behind your backs, listen to the reckless manner in which they pitch into others.

We admire a patience that doesn't parade it. The hen, for instance, when sitting doesn't look as if it felt that a rooster could ever be such a martyr.—Atchison Globe.

Pocahontas and John Smith.

The pretty story of Smith's rescue from imminent death by Pocahontas when he was in the clutches of her redoubtable father, Powhatan, has been rather blown upon by later historians. It has been shown that Smith in his earlier narrative only mentions the princess incidentally as a child, and it was not until she came afterward to England and Smith wrote an account of her for the edification of the court that he described vividly how she hazarded the beating out of her own brains to save his. By that time the romantic Pocahontas had been metamorphosed into Mistress Rebecca Rolfe, wife of a Virginia settler of standing, and her portrait, with plumed hat, ruff and fan, has been duly handed down in this capacity.—London Times.

Wife Appreciated It.

They have just "blown themselves" for a new bed, an old fashioned, colonial sort of bed, that looks as though it might have been in somebody's family for a hundred years or so, and they think a great deal of it. They have discussed its many merits time and again, but it remained for the young wife to discover one feature of the new bed that had never appealed to the husband.

"There's one thing I like about the bed," said she, "about the sideboard, and the way it's put on."

"What's that?" asked he.

"It's so low I don't believe a man could crawl under it," said she.—Indianapolis News.

The Taps on the Wall.

His mother was superstitious afore 'im and always knew when 'er friends died by hearing three loud taps on the wall. The on'y mistake she ever made was one night when, arter losing no less than seven friends, she found out it was the man next door hanging pictures at 3 o'clock in the morning. She found it out by 'im hitting 'is thumb nail.—Strand Magazine.

They Didn't Know Paper.

Scholars have wondered why it was that the ancient Roman genius never achieved the art of printing. The secret of the failure lies probably in the fact that the Romans never discovered how to make paper, for recent investigations prove that they had in general use wooden and metal stamps for marking wares, packages, etc.—Pittsburg Post.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

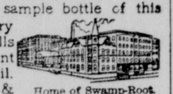
How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.



Home of Swamp-Root.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, and the address, Binghampton, N. Y. on every bottle.

MEN PAST SIXTY IN DANGER

More than half of mankind over sixty years of age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders, usually enlargement of prostate glands. This is both painful and dangerous, and Foley's Kidney Cure should be taken at the first sign of danger, as it corrects irregularities and has cured many old men of this disease. Mr. Rodney Burnett, Rockport, Mo., writes "I suffered with enlarged prostate gland and kidney trouble for years and after taking two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure I feel better than I have for twenty years, although I am now 91 years old."—For sale by all druggists.
