ROCK HALL ITEMS

Nearly three weeks of the oyster season gone and nothing in it yet except immense quantities of oysters on the bedding grounds of the long men, who will be lucky if they can dispose of them before freezing weather sets in. A few buyers are still trying to keep up a run by taking in 75 or a 100 bushel lots, for which they pay 20 cents a bushel. Very few tongers will sell at such price, prefering to bed their catch, believing that it will be better shortly. One tongman Rich Colyer, is sanquine that a better time is very close, as he has declared that he will have neither hair cut, shave or face wash until he gets 50 cents a bushel for his oysters.

Some of our business men and others made extensive calculation and preparations in their plans for the future, trusting that the oyster season would pull them through. They are now in the dumps fearful of a failure.

There are lots of fine tailor fish in our waters now. Some of the watermen have been making good hauls. It is thought that a mistake was made in not making preparations for those fish this season by the fishermen. A number are now rigging up, but it is probably too late for much success.

Our farmers who succeeded in raising a crop of tomatoes are rushing them in the past two weeks at a lively rate.

Blade pulling and corn cutting is also in a rush.

Mr. John Moore has moved to the Hatcherson farm and seems to be well pleased. The oystermen find in him all they could desire in the use of his premises as a thoroughfare to and from their oystering operation.

Mr. R. A. Fogwell and his best "Cariander," of near Worton, were visiting relatives in these parts on Saturday and Sunday.

Fruit and vegetable packing is in full blast with the good housewives of our section. They miss the luscious peach but they are making up for that on other and new lines, which it is hoped will make the absence of the peach less conspicuous.

For a number of years the cry has been protect the oysters, curtail the catch or the bars will become depleted. Now we are told if the oysters are not caught up more rapidly, there will be no oysters to catch. Capt. Webster says if the oysters on Hodge Bar and Teatree are not caught this season, they will die because of their rank growth. From present outlook this country will be sick of oysters by the time the Haman Law gets in full force.

By the way, the Haman Law is a live issue politically in this section these days. Will the oyster question never cease to be a political factor?

STILL POND NOTES.

Mrs. William Thompson and little son Earl are visiting relatives in Philadelphia.

Miss Mary Anderson spent Sunday with her mother at Cecilton.

Miss Cora Jewell has returned home after spending several days with relatives in Philadelphia.

The young folks gave a delightful surprise party to Chas. Ford on Thursday evening it being his twenty-first birthday. Quite a large number of young folks were present.

Mrs. Chas. Meeks, of Philadelphia, has been visiting Mrs. Elizabeth Meeks the past week.

The Epworth League will be led Sunday evening by Mrs. William Medders, subject, "The Word of God Perverted." Everyone is invited to attend these services.

Mr. Carrolton and Joe Willson, of Philadelphia, have returned to their home after spending some time with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Krusen.

Mrs. John Archibald and daughter, Maud, have been visiting relatives at Bridgeville, Del.

Our church services last Sunday were nicely attended, and at the close of the morning service 8 persons joined the church in full membership. Willie Ford led the Epworth League, the entire evening being given to the League. Topic, namely, Bible Study. Miss Bertha Price sang a solo to the delight of the entire audience. Misses Marian Hackett, Mabel Norris and Laura Norris read excellent papers. Our pastor closed the service with an address urging all to more loyalty to the bible.

Our pastor's subject for next Sunday morning, "20th Century Christian," the evening subject, "The Great Remedy for Sin." We shall expect you at these services and a royal welome awaits you.

MILLINGTON ITEMS.

Miss Willie Moffett has returned home after spending a two month's vacation at Eagle's Mere, Pa., and other places.

Miss Augusta Bowen, of Baltimore, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. C. Moore.

Misses Ruby and Mary Ahern have returned to Westminister where they will resume their studies at Western Maryland College.

Miss Julia Ferguson returned to Baltimore last Saturday to resume her teaching at Maryland School for the Blind.

Mrs. Henrietta Crane and daughter, Miss Florence, were the guests of Mrs. Finley Collins last week.

During this week death has visited our town and vicinity calling both young and old.

The infant son of Mr. Andrew Legg died Monday morning. The funeral services were held at the home near town Thursday afternoon. Interment at Crumpton.

Mrs. Josephene Foster died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Comegys, Monday evening. Mrs. Foster had been an invalid for several months and the end was daily expected, so that while her death was a shock it was not a surprise. Funeral services were held at Holy Cross Chapel Friday morning. Interment at Sudlersville cemetery.

It is with deep regret we record the death of Miss Clarabel Higman, the only daughter of Mr. James Higman, near town. Miss Higman had been suffering with typhoid fever for the past three weeks but was not considered ill, so that her death which occured Tuesday night was a great shock to her friends. She was a bright, lovely girl, just leading into womanhood, just sixteen, and a great favorite with all who knew her, and while we shall sadly miss her bright presence among us we are confident she is happy in a brighter world than this. Funeral services were held Friday afternoon from her late home. Rev. C. W. Moore officiating, assisted by Rev. Edwin Gardner. Interment at Sudlersville cemetery. J. L. Smith, funeral director.

Autumn Opening Week

Autumn Opening means this:

That the first really full collection of fall merchandise is on view; that styles are fixed; and that purchases may be made with the knowledge that the articles bought are the apppoved things to wear:

This week we show: The New Millinery, The New Garments, The New Dress Materials, The New Silks, The New Waists, The New Shoes.

There's a showing of the new in the other departments, too—and on every hand there's complete anticipation of your wants for the coming season. The store was never more worthy of a visit than now.

The September Sale of Lace Curtains

Even for this store, where great merchandising events are too frequent to excite comment, this September Sale of Lace Curtains is of unusual scope and magnitude.

Purchases involving many thousand dollars have enabled us to offer Lace Curtains at clear savings of one-fourth to one-half. Every pair is perfect; every pair is fresh and unsoiled; the prices alone have suffered.

This is to be a memorable sale—the sort of sale that this store alone can plan and carry to a successful conclusion.

JEFFERSON

OPPOSITE STAM'S HALL.

MANY THANKS

DEAR PATRONS:

The proprietor of "The Ladies' Store" desires to express gratefulness and extend many thanks for the liberal patronage accorded this establishment during the short hour service of the past two months.

We feel very grateful indeed toward the ladies of the Town Improvement Society, who responded so nobly to the call for short hour service and circulated petitions in our behalf and otherwise co-operated with us, thus enabling us to make it possible to close our doors at 7 p. m. and give our clerks the much needed rest during the summer evenings.

It has proven a great benefit and was greatly enjoyed by them and we feel that it in no wise inconvenienced the public.

Again thanking the public we extend a most cordial welcome to call and examine our fall lines, which are complete, and are now on exhibition. We also have on the bargain counters many articles of summer goods at greatly reduced prices.

Summer Goods

We have a few White Suits and Shirt Waists left yet and they must go to make room for the fall ones that are coming in and they go, what is left of them, at unheard of prices. Come early and avoid the rush.

Fall Dress Goods

Our line is now complete in every detail, everything that the most precise lady can wish for—both in cloth and colorings. While black is stronger than usual this season, brown is good, blue is still in demand, fancy check are also very much in evidence and here can be had every shade in brown, and blue and in all prices to suit everybody's pocket book.

Summer Oxfords $2.48

We have just a few Summer Oxfords left in patent leather gun metal, kid and russet that must go as we have not shelf room. They are the $3.50 and $4.00 ones and they go at less than cost, only $2.48; all sizes and withs. —Main Isle.

Millinery Millinery

Our Millinery Department will be completed next week. Our trimmer is in New York and Philadelphia selecting the very latest and newest things to be had. While we did better last season than ever before we are going to double our business this season if a complete stock of goods was ever carried.
