been supported in laying deep the foundations of a christian community, destined under His Providence to be instrumental in diffusing the blessings of divine light among heathen peoples, whose minds though morally dark, are now beginning, by numbers, to give evidence of the first and earliest fruits of the workings of evangelical truths.

W. A. Prout

Harper, Cape Palmas,
August 7, 1855

Maryland Historical Society

The Maryland State Colonization Society Papers

II. Correspondence Received
A. Letter Books

13. May 1855—October 1857

1855