Dr James Hall:

It is now 5½ P.M. I am just from Taneytown where Rev. Robert & I have been seen Phelps. Your note to him enclosed to me he has read & will avail himself of your politeness. He goes to Phil. to morrow & will not arrive at Baltimore till 1 P.M. Saturday. Says he must leave in the 3 P.M. train so as to spend 2 hours in Washington & go right on that night to Va. & get to Petersburgh Sat. Morning. So get him a dinner piping hot & let Rev. La Trobe see him. George is in N.Y. I have not yet seen him.

Truly Yours
G. W. Pinney

July 17th/56

I should expect you to guard him as far as Washington: and if I need press it, I would keep you to Petersburg. Roberts
